

THE OUTPOST FROM FIELDS AFAR

ter and be there. We are now in England.

Before I close, I'd like to say "hello" to Mom and the rest at home. "I'll be home soon, Mom." Also the best of luck to my sister, Florence, who is in Arkansas, and brother, "Dan", who was in the invasion of Bougainville in the Pacific. Dan has been in the hospital with malaria for some time.

I also want to send my regards to a sweet little nurse in the Nesbitt Hospital. Good luck to you all and Cheerio! Thank you ever so much for The Posts I do get.

As ever,
Chet Rusiloski,
B. M. 2/C
Somewhere in England.

• Thanks for a swell letter, Chet. It's almost too much to expect a spavined old fellow like The Dallas Post to keep up with an active traveling man like yourself. How do you fellows on ships get your mail. I think the folks at home would be interested to know whether it is brought to you by other ships or whether you have to wait until you are back in a home port before you receive it. The Back Mountain Region has real reason to be proud of the Rusiloski boys and girls.—Editor.

Heavily Censored

Dear Howard:

It has been some time since I have received a Post and it surely was good to hear about the home town, although it was a great shock to hear about the three people being killed in Dallas. I helped build that bridge.

I have been in Gaudalcanal and now moved up farther, and it is not comfortable. (About a paragraph censored here) we have been out here for ten months and no hopes of coming home for the next six. I haven't much to write, but would like to say "hello" to Major Camp, in Trucksville and I wish to thank you for The Post, Howard, and may it keep coming.

Very truly,
Ralph S. Parsons,
c/o Postmaster,
San Francisco,
Via V. . . . Mail

P. S. Excuse the writing. Conditions here aren't so good for writing letters.

• The censor certainly did a job on your letter, Ralph. He smeared India ink all over your longest paragraph. Wish we could find a way to get The Posts to you quicker each week. Good luck to you and here's hoping it won't be those six long months before you get nearer home.—Editor.
