never have to worry about getting the Post. She changes the addresses even before we get your letters. She and Mrs. Baker are doing a fine job. They had so many changes to make this week that they worked all Sunday evening on the list. If Les Warhola or Lester Culver reads this letter I hope they ship you a five-gallon demijohn of good old Dallas water. Jerry Sullivan is pumping the gas now but he checks up awful close on my ration tickets. Wish you were back here, too.—Editor.

THE OUTPOST FROM FIELDS AFAR

on it, if you would like to read it. I am now in the F.S.S.F., (First Special Service Force). It is the U. S.-Canadian Paratroopers, so it has about the same physical requirements as did the Rangers. They do about the same type of fighting, so you see the name is about the only change to me.

I haven't gotten any papers for a long time now. I hope I can get some since I have given you my new address. I miss not getting the paper a great deal.

I was promoted to Sergeant before I left the Rangers. I just found out about that. I heard I was a Sergeant a long time ago, but I wasn't sure about it.

Well, I must close for now.

As ever,
Sgt. Thomas Templin
c/o Postmaster
New York, N. Y.

P. S. In case Lawrence Ide gets the paper I want to say "hello" and wish him the best of luck.

I know you haven't had time, but don't tell me you haven't had something to write about. Tommy, you can't kid me that way. I read the Stars & Stripes account of what happened to your outfit and the Rangers at Anzio. You're a lucky boy to have come out of it alive. It's swell to hear that you have been promoted to sergeant but it doesn't look as though you are going to get any deserved rest in the paratroopers. What did I hear about a little Italian girl, or was that just a rumor. The outfit sends all its best regards with the hope that this Post will be sure to reach Sgt. Templin somewhere in Southern Europe.—Editor.
