Lake Proprietors Have A Busy Memorial Day

Harvey's Lake proprietors had one of the busiest Memorial Days since war was declared, this year. Most of the visitors were older people, women and their children, with a few servicemen. Traffic was heavy. There were few swimmers, because the ones who usually swim, the younger folks, weren't there.

Hillside Sells Choice Cattle

Brokenshire Buys Foundation Herd

A choice group of twelve Holstein heifers which will form the foundation for the pure bred herd at Orchard Knob Farm owned by Fred Brokenshire has just been transferred from Hillside Farms. Among the animals are ten daughters of Hillside Homesteader, a sire bred at Hillside from high-testing, heavy producing families. Another is the daughter of Hillside Homesteader Pilot and one is the daughter of Montvic Pathfinder Prilly, a son of the noted Montvic Pathfinder whose daughters are consistently high-testers, heavy-producers and beautiful show cows. Discussing the sale, Franklin Hemmway, manager at Hillside said, "Orchard Knob Farm is to be congratulated on the selection of as fine a group of young cattle as Hillside Farms has produced in a number of years. An interesting feature of the transaction is that it came about through an advertisement in the Dallas Post. Home products and home advertising bring home markets." George Sernoski, manager at Orchard Knob, and Mr. Brokenshire said they were delighted with the purchase. Development of a dairy is a new enterprise for both men since most of their efforts have been devoted toward raising potatoes. This year they had added all of the Whip Farm and twenty-eight acres of the Robinson Farm to the lands they have under cultivation making about 160 acres in all. Last year they raised 12,000 bushels of potatoes and this year hope to double the crop.

Asked if the manpower problem wouldn't handicap them, Mr. Brokenshire laughed, "George has got that pretty well licked. Mechanization is the answer."
