

MILLIONS WAIT

AFTER almost five long years of war, a suffering continent waits for relief by Allied liberators.

Enemy devastation included schools, churches, like this Norwegian church in Molde, destroyed in 1940.

GREEK family sits dazed amid the ruins of their home. Fathers and sons, daughters and mothers have been separated. Problems like these face UNRRA, United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration.

BELGIAN mother and children, caught in total war, wait for their chance to lead normal, peaceful lives.

HOMES, like these in Amsterdam, have been devastated. Whole towns in Europe must be built up again.

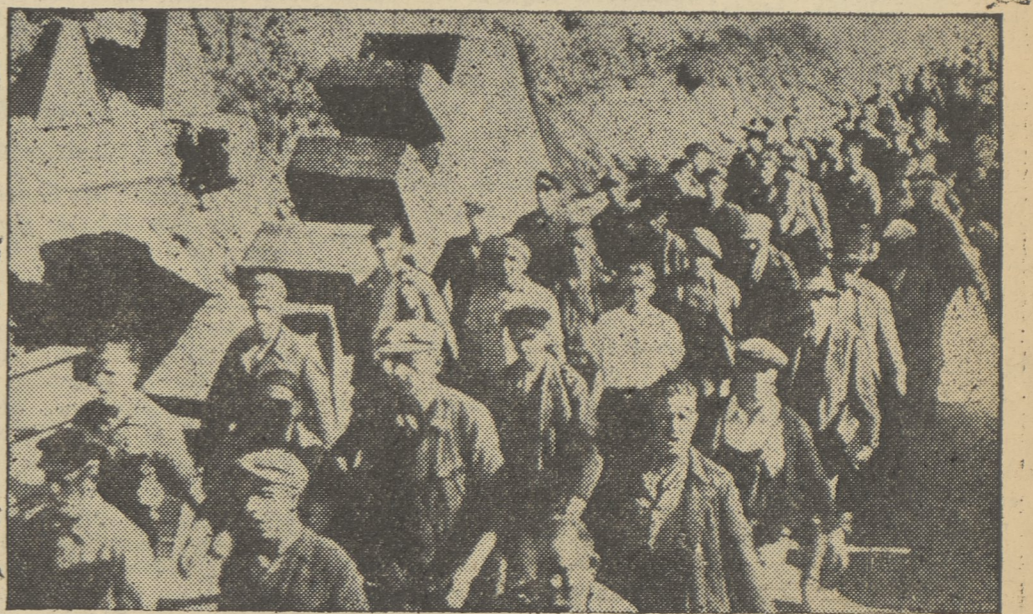

THESE are Polish refugees. Over 8,000,000 Poles have been uprooted from their homes, some are as far away as India. Today from 20 to 30 million people have been displaced, are wandering over Europe.

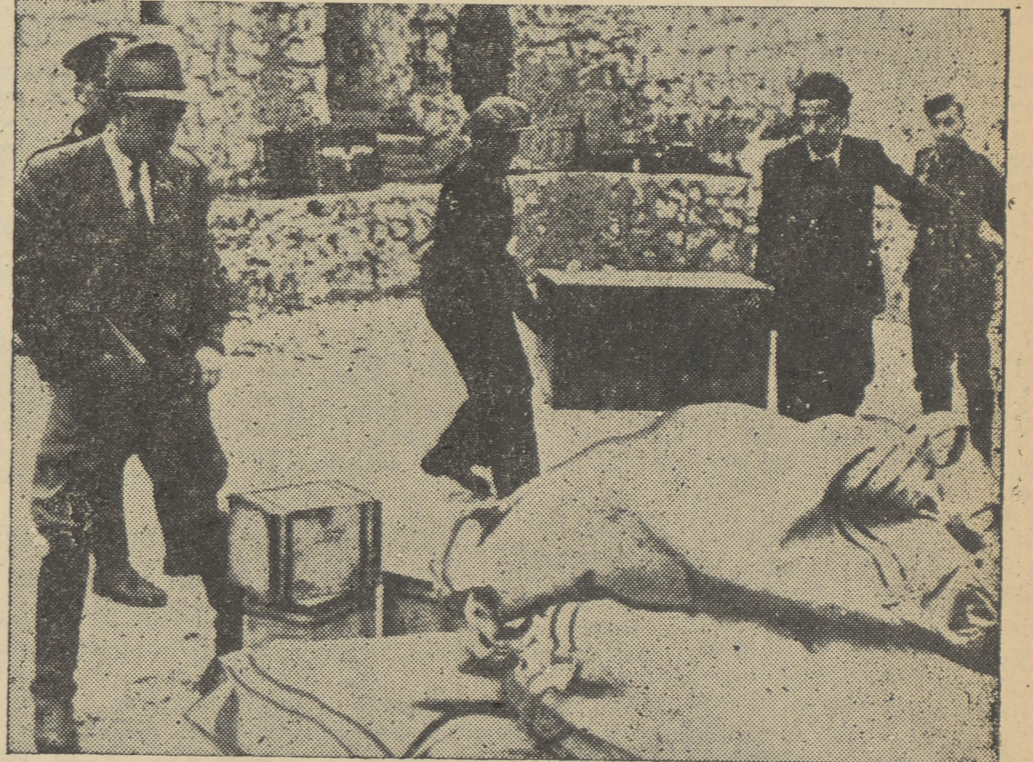

FRENCH housewives stand outside a Paris dairy for meagre rations. Within two years after Nazis came death from tuberculosis in Paris went up 51%.

RUSSIAN prisoners of war sit behind barbed wire. Over 5,000,000 prisoners, men from America, all of Europe and the Dominions, hope for repatriation.

SOME 6,500,000 laborers from Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Luxembourg, from most of Europe have been conscripted by Germany—they too wait to get back home.

GESTAPO loots gold from Yugoslavia—the U.S. Board of Economic Warfare stated that by end of 1941 German plunder had reached $36,000,000,000.

FRENCH boys working on airfield for Nazis symbolize the fate of Europe today. Liberation by the United Nations will give them back their youth.