THE SAFETY VALVE

Not A One-Man Job

Dear Editor: In your last week's issue you gave quite a story about the reduction in fire insurance rates in the State of Pennsylvania, and particularly Dallas Borough. As you said in your article, Dallas Borough received a seven cent reduction on dwelling rates, plus a 17 cent credit for dwelling properties within 600 feet of a fire hydrant, and that this latter reduction was due wholly to the installation of fire hydrants.

We are, naturally, very pleased that these reductions have been secured. However, I feel that you have given me undue credit for my part in obtaining these new rates. It is true that I spent considerable time in interesting Council and the Water Company in order to secure hydrants, and in contacting the Middle Department Rating Association regarding the reductions. Still, that has not been a one-man job. Dallas Borough Council deserves commendation because they have appropriated necessary money for the hydrants and were very cooperative and anxious to do anything that would help the Borough. Incidentally, now that the new rates are in effect, the reduction in fire premiums in Dallas Borough will more than pay for the hydrant fees.

The Dr. Henry M. Laing Fire Company as an organization and several interested citizens have cooperated from the very beginning in our effort to secure these hydrants and new rates; in other words, I want to stress emphatically, the fact that this has not been a one-man job.

Yours very truly, HARRY L. OHLMAN.

Wyrsch, Harold and Nancy Elston and Shirley Jean Wyrsch spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Split.

Cadet Nurse Jessie Ashton is spending a week visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Laskowski have received word that their son, Pfc. Bernard, has arrived safely in England.

Miss Edna Jones returned to her home in Nanticoke after spending part of last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Roushey.

Arthur Beyer Jr. of Newark, N. J. is spending August with relatives here.

Pvt. John Rushko who has been stationed in Texas for the past year is spending a fifteen-day furlough with his father.

Doyle Roberts Heart Victim

Is Fatally Stricken While On Way To Work

Doyle Roberts, 50-year-old Dallas heart attack victim, was buried Tuesday afternoon in Kocher Cemetery, Ruggles, with services held at the family home on Davenport street. Mr. Roberts, foreman at the American Stores warehouse in Wilkes-Barre, was fatally stricken on his way to work Friday morning. Starting out late, he ran from Parrish Heights to Main street where he missed his bus. A passing motorist, Maurice Harris of Brooklyn, offered him a ride to the valley. When the automobile was nearing the Fernbrook avenue overpass, Mr. Harris noticed that Mr. Roberts looked ill, and drove to the nearby Texaco gas station to summon aid. He called Dr. Malcolm Borthwick of Shavertown, but when the physician arrived a few minutes later, Mr. Roberts was dead.

The son of the late Samuel and Katherine Welliver Roberts, Mr. Roberts was born in Unityville on April 15, 1894. His family came to Sweet Valley when he was a child, and it was there that he received his schooling. He attended Pleasant Hill Academy, and taught in Back Mountain schools. While teaching at Ruggles, he met Florence Kocher of Harvey's Lake, and married her on May 12th, twenty-seven years ago. They lived in Wilkes-Barre, Shavertown and Ruggles, before coming to Dallas in 1930. The latter part of July they moved from the Gaertner house on Huntsville road to their present home.

Mr. Roberts would have observed twenty-three years of service with American Stores Company next month. He was employed by O. R. Mullison at the time the Wilkes-Barre man sold out to the national firm. He had arranged to have a vacation starting this week so that he could spend some time with his son, A/C Harold Roberts of San Francisco, who was expected home on furlough.

Industrious and dependable, Mr. Roberts was respected by both his employees and fellow-workers. The esteem in which he was held by the young people of Dallas was expressed by a basket of gladioli bought with the dimes and pennies of about sixty of his children's friends.

Mr. Roberts leaves besides his widow and son, Harold, six other children, Mrs. George Orcutt of Noxen, Darwin, Robert, Glenn, Bruce and Lowell, all at home; two brothers, Herman of Buffalo and George of Painted Post, N. Y., and three sisters, Mrs. Jennie Boston, Mrs. Bessie Wandell and Edna Roberts of Sweet Valley.

Rev. Charles B. Smith, pastor of Huntsville Christian Church of which Mr. Roberts was a member, and Rev. W. J. Waterstripe officiated at the services. Fellow workers were pall bearers and flower carriers: Brinley Miller, Vito Bachanas, Jack Costello, Leo Namey, Anthony Carkhuff, Hiram Mower; Frank Garris, Walter Rybitski, Jack Robbins, Sylvester Miller, Stephen Stoliarick, Edward O'Day, and Charles Newman.

families each year, each male three. Opposite the large cage there are two shelves, and at breeding time, each couple is put in a breeding cage on these shelves. A round wire "nest", very similar to a medium-sized strainer, is attached to the side of the cage, and material put in the cage for making a nest. Sometimes a hen will lay as many as thirty eggs, but Mrs. Thompson allows only four or five to hatch, a large enough family for the mother canary to take care of. After they are a month old the young ones are put in a separate cage and the father and mother back to their own places.

Mrs. Thompson offers a few hints to canary owners for longer bird-life. First, be sure the packaged seed bought is not moldy and have a good condition seed. Second, don't keep the bird in a hot place such as the kitchen, over a radiator or register, or in a draft. Third, make sure he has his greens everyday. Fourth, be sure the cage is clean and the bird bathed regularly.

American Legion Takes Over Observation Post

Daddow Isaacs Post American Legion at their meeting Wednesday evening formally took over the observation post building on Huntsville road as a permanent meeting place. Plans were made to enlarge the building after the war and make it a sort of club house in which returned soldiers may meet their friends, read current magazines, and use, in general, as a recreation center.

A vote of thanks was given to Zel Garinger, Edward Hoppa, Paul Shaver, Clyde Veitch and to Pop Covert for donating chairs for the meetings, and to the borough for cleaning up the grounds.
