MAKE, MIX AND MATCH THIS COMFORTABLE SWEATER SET

Your favorite sweater companions for the duration will be these rough and ruddy twins of shetland wool. They make wonderful mix-matchers when you knit them of contrasting colors such as fuchsia and violet, gold and green. You just can't have too many combinations, because this pullover and cardigan can't be topped for all-around livability. The directions for knitting "Heavenly Twins Sweaters" may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying design No. 450.

Miss Nora Lally Becomes Bride of Lt. Leon M. Austin

Miss Nora Lally, daughter of Mrs. and the late John Lally of Manchester, England, and First Lieutenant Leon M. Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon J. Austin, Sr., of Main street, Shavertown, were married in St. Edwards Church, Manchester, England, at 2 p. m. Saturday, September 16. The Rev. Joseph Rermitt performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, William Burke, was attired in white net and lace gown made on princess lines and fashioned with high neckline and long sleeves. Her full length veil of tulle was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of roses.

Misses Kathleen Tinkler and Monica Schofield, friends of the bride, acted as bridesmaids. They chose matching gowns of turquoise blue taffeta with headress of turquoise net and fuschia flowers. They carried bouquets of mixed flowers.

Cousins of the bride, Maureen and Rita Burke and Barry Davis attended the bride. The little girls wore white satin dresses with bon-nets lined with turquoise taffeta and carried turquoise taffeta muffs. Barry wore a turquoise satin and velvet suit.

Best man for the bridegroom was Major D. J. Williams of California and his groomsman was Captain Dean Kaworinos of Kansas. Best man was his youngest brother, S/Sgt. Gordon J. Austin, who flew in from France and arrived five minutes before the ceremony started. The two boys hadn't seen each other for four years.

The couple spent their honeymoon in the Derbyshire Mountains and at the Blackpool summer resort.

Lt. Austin was graduated from Dallas Township High School in the class of 1936 and enlisted in the air force in January, 1938. He is now working as air force engineering officer at an airplane depot somewhere in England.

Another son of the Austins, T/Sgt. Chester, is with the Foreign Ferry Command at Hamilton Field, Cal.
