

POET'S CORNER

Spring

See the pretty waters flow,
Coming out from winter's glow,
All the happy children say,
"Christ be with you all the day,
It is Spring."

Flower, humming-bird and bee,
All peep out of their beds to see If the winter snow is gone That used to lie on the grassy lawn,—
It is Spring.

When they peeped and found it had,
Each little violet said,
"Let us come up day by day,
We know the way;
It is Spring."
Harriet Storer Fisk.
1892, age 8 years

Fair seem these winter days; and soon Shall blow the warm south wind of Spring;
To set the ice-bound rills in tune,
And hither urge the bluebird's wing.
The vale shall laugh with flowers;
the woods
Grow misty green with leafing buds,
And violets and wind flowers sway Against the throbbing heart of May.
—Whittier.

THE OUTPOST FROM CAMPS AT HOME

knowing she is still interested. I keep hearing about the severe weather you've been having. It seems funny, considering how mild our winter has been here. Spring is in the air already. I notice someone has forgotten to add my name to the birthday lists for March 10. I think you are doing a swell job with the Post. The morale builder is my name for it. It is just what we need, being so far away. So thanking you again,
I remain,
Sgt. Howard Wilcox
Redmond, Oregon.

● We had an idea you fellows would enjoy seeing your folks' letters in the Post just as much as we enjoy receiving them. When you get as old as I am you'll appreciate having folks forget your birthday.

Proud Of His Class

Dear Mr. Risley, Having a little spare time on this pleasant Sunday morning, I will make an attempt towards writing a few lines to the editor of that "good ole hometown" paper.
Although I am not a recipient of the free Posts for service men, I receive the Post regularly each week from my mother when they are finished reading it. Needless to say, it furnishes a great deal of pleasure in reading about home, and most of all keeping in contact with all the fellows who have been scattered so far from home. It's a great paper and I hope it continues to be that way always.

I don't know how the people in Dallas feel about our boys coming through with the basketball championship again this season, but I do know that the team made a lot of us fellows much happier, that is the boys from the Borough. From what I hear Miss Park also did a swell job with the girls' team.

How is everything going in Dallas? I don't imagine there is much change other than a scarcity of fellows. It seems the Navy got ahold of our class quite thoroughly, with the exception of one Marine.
Just last week the last of the "Big Four" as we call it, became full-blooded Navy when Steve enlisted.
Our Champ boxer, Bobby, is in the Pacific, Nank at Sampson, and here I am at Newport awaiting the word to sail. Look out, Japan!

Well, Mr. Risley, thanks again for putting out such a swell paper.
I hope the Lock Mountain Memorial Library is a great success. I know it will be. I must drop anchor for now, so until later I remain, As ever,
Clint Brobst
U. S. N. T. S.
Newport, R. I.

● For shame! Somebody slipped up on sending in that F.P.F.S. coupon for you, Clint. I've looked all through the file and there's no card for you. Fill one in and ship it back to us. We'll see that you get the Post every week.—Editor.

Buy More War Savings Bonds And Stamps

"Guess this kind of puts it up to you, Mrs. Jones-to-be!"

It's up to you, honey.

I'll do all I can—but they don't pay privates in the Army very much.

So—it's up to you. It's your turn now, to wear the pants, hold down a job, and take care of the Jones' future finances.

You're smart enough to do it, too. To realize that if you'll take every cent that you don't need to live on and tuck it away in those same War Bonds I've been buying—we'll do all right.

I'll be coming back someday. I know that. I don't think anything could happen to a fellow who's going to marry you.
And when I do come back...

With what I've saved in War Bonds, and what you're going to save in War Bonds, and with the extra money those Bonds are going to bring—well...

We'll have a stake. A stake that'll help us to make up for all the time I've been away.

And we'll have something else, too—something that we wouldn't want to be without. Between my fighting and your buying, we'll have the knowledge that we both toed the line and did our share.

So buy those Bonds, honey. And hang onto them. Till the day when I get back —it's up to you!

Keep faith with our fighters—buy War Bonds for keeps!
