FIVE TONS OF CANDY

A new candy company in Havana is producing 10,000 pounds of candy each day.

A two-directional flower arrangement is as carefully planned as an artist's painting by Alyn Wayne, stylist of the Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association, who uses only a modest number of carnations and gladioli in a shallow black bowl. Not only is the pattern intriguing but each blossom can be seen in all its beauty.

Miss Dorothy Mae Kitchen Weds Petty Officer Atkinson

Miss Dorothy Mae Kitchen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kitchen of Lee Park, became the bride of Petty Officer First Class Byron Atkinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce F. Atkinson of Davenport street, Saturday evening, March 10, at 6 o'clock in the Baptist Tabernacle at Lee Park. Attendants were Mrs. Reynold Rehn, sister of the bride, and Asa Shottwell was best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white chiffon gown banded with white satin. Her finger tip veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried white roses.

Mrs. Rehn selected pink satin similarly made and carried sunburst roses.

Following the ceremony a reception for members of the immediate families and friends was held at the home of the bride.

Mrs. Atkinson is a graduate of Hanover Township High School. She is the niece of Mrs. Wilbert Hoover and Mrs. Clarence Root of Outlet. Petty Officer Atkinson attended Dallas Borough High School and entered service with the U. S. Navy November, 1942. He left for Washington State to report for duty today.

Mrs. Sherman Warden Entertains Members Of Kunkle Birthday Club

Mrs. Sherman Warden entertained members of her birthday club at her home in Shavertown recently. The occasion was her mother, Mrs. Marilla Kunkle's birthday, who would have been ninety-nine years old had she still been living.

Members of the birthday club which organized in 1928 were classmates at the old Kunkle School and the birthday parties are grand reunions held every month or so. Roll is called, old school songs sung and a jolly time refreshing school memories is enjoyed by all. Red roses, the club flower, usually decorate the party table. Members entertain with solos and readings. All except three of the charter members still attend, Mrs. Charles Herdhan, Mrs. William Conden and Mrs. Fred Makinson having been claimed by death.
