Miss Brotherhood Active In Red Cross

Miss Maude Brotherhood, leading Wyoming Valley resident and aunt of Mrs. Arthur Culver of Dallas, died at 12:30 Thursday morning in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where she had been a patient since January 31.

Miss Brotherhood graduated from Wilkes-Barre High School and was an active member of St. Stephen's Church and Women's Auxiliary. She was a frequent visitor in Dallas.

During the last war she managed the Red Cross work-rooms, keeping records of the incoming and outgoing materials. Shortly after the war she was appointed executive secretary of the Wyoming Valley Chapter of the Red Cross and served in that office for many years.

Miss Brotherhood was a member of the Board of Directors of the Luzerne County Social Hygiene Society, honorary member of the Board of Directors of the Red Cross and Vice-chairman of Production for the Red Cross, charter member of the Wilkes-Barre Quota Club, member of the Wyoming Valley Women's Club, St. Barnabas Guild, and the Wyoming Valley and West Side Garden Clubs.

Kingston Township May Queen

DORIS MAY HONTZ

Doris May Hontz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hontz of Shavertown, was crowned May Queen at Kingston Township High School's annual Field Day, Friday May 25. Chosen from the Senior girls by vote of the student body, her identity was kept a secret until that morning, in accordance with Kingston Township traditions.

The five Seniors who received the next highest number of votes were her attendants: Mary Anne Youngblood, Patricia Cairns, Louise Dodson, Jane Widall and Dorothy Considine. The remaining Senior girls formed the court of honor. Peggy Greenwood, junior crown-bearer, placed a wreath of spirea on the Queen's head.

The May Queen wore a white gown and carried a spray of white carnations. Her throne was white, placed against the natural background of the grove. Train bearers were Carol Ann Altemus and James Oplinger.

The Queen's court wore pastel gowns. The attendants carried snadragons and roses, while the remaining Seniors carried arm bouquets of spring garden flowers.

Dances of the Nation were presented as entertainment for the Queen. Seventh and eighth grade girls performed Scottish and Norwegian dances. Those of the ninth grade danced the traditional English Maypole. Sophomore girls did an American "Gay Nineties" Booms-a-Daisie.

During the day there were also athletic contests and a baseball game between the sixth grade boys of the Shavertown and Trucksville grade schools, with Shavertown winning.

Kennel Clubbers Own Variety of Dogs

ingers hope to raise some puppies, all as lively and intelligent as Quiz. Mr. Garinger also has a few homing pigeons, though not as many as before the war. There used to be a bit of rivalry between Mr. Garinger and his son Wilson, now at an Air Corps rest camp in Rome, as to which one had the best birds. The Garinger pigeons won several races and trophies. Mr. Garinger now is going to concentrate on dogs, keeping the pigeons for Wilson when he comes home.

Joy, a Welsh terrier from the Robinson Kennels, lives up to her name by providing plenty of merriment for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheaton Lee. Definitely a member of the family, she has her own bed in the kitchen. Joy has one bad habit, going out into the road to smell the tire tracks after a car has passed.

Mr. and Mrs. William Powell of Shrine View have three reasons for joining the Kennel Club—Pepper, Jackie and Mabel. As his name indicates, the two and a half year old Welsh terrier from the Robinson kennels is full of pep and personality. He's quite a watchdog and loves to go riding in the car. The "Old Man of the Mountain", Jackie, is an eleven-year-old black and white cocker. He and Pepper get along together very well but Jackie, by an occasional nip makes Pepper remember to respect his elders. Mabel, Mr. Powell's English setter, never comes in the house; she is kept just for hunting.

Dottie, Ralph Hallock's black and white cocker spaniel, isn't interested in the dog show. She knows that her owners think she is a prize-winner as a house pet. She isn't a pup anymore—they got her from the Payne kennels six years ago—but she still has plenty of life.

There are other members, with other dogs. Each one says, "Oh, there's nothing you could write about our dog." But each pet has something special about it which makes it The Dog to its family.

Waste Paper Is Converted Into Suits Of Armor

Residents of Luzerne county can supply enough waste paper for 1,471,726 "suits of armor" for 105 mm. shells, if they will buckle down and save an average of 10 pounds of newspapers, wrapping paper and boxes a month. The 105's are the big ones that have been helping American forces in their advance toward Berlin and Tokyo.

Last year Americans saved 106½ pounds of waste paper per capita, or enough for about 35 containers each for the 105 mm. shells.

For each ammunition container or "paper suit or armor" used to protect the shells from salt water, dents, nicks and corrosive dirt, approximately three pounds of waste paper are required. Ammunition container board, one of the principal materials used in making the "suits of armor", is made from mixed paper and old corrugated boxes. Another material used is called "tube and can stock," which is made from all types of waste paper.

There is a dangerous curve downward of motor vehicles still running. The average car is eight years old and over. One out of every six cars on the road today is driving for the junk pile. Unless you are extra cautious—unless you drive carefully and have your car inspected regularly—YOUR CAR MAY BE THE ONE.

The current Pennsylvania inspection period expires July 31 and there will be no extension —no period of grace. If you have not yet had your car inspected—do so at once. Avoid the last-minute rush at inspection stations. Allow your mechanic enough time to thoroughly inspect the brakes . . . lights . . . tires and motor.

State inspection is a vital safety measure to make certain your car is safe to drive and to protect the public.

By having your car inspected now, you are co-operating with the war effort. Every car on the road today is carrying an important war load. Keep your car on the road.
