

Peace on Earth Good Will Toward Men

NOEL

Our forefathers sometimes celebrated Christmas under great difficulties and perils. Today we greet the Holiday season with gladness in our hearts, deeply grateful that peace has come again.

In all reverence on this glorious time we wish you all the deep joys that only Christmas gives.

SEASON'S

A Merry Christmas
to
All our Friends

Mr. and Mrs Paul F. Nulton

Beaumont

We are always glad to see Christmas come around again. First, we are glad because friendship prevails in the land, and then again because it gives us such a fine opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for your valued friendship and patronage.

Serving you gives us great pleasure; knowing you is most enjoyable. May you have happiness and health and a full life.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

A JOLLY CHRISTMAS to one and all. Children are hopefully watching at the windows to catch a glimpse of their jolly patron, Santa Claus. Grown-ups are looking back at a year which brought again Peace on Earth. Let's all look forward on this hopeful day.

May your Christmas of 1945 be bright and your hearts light.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

There is a gift far more precious than the costliest jewel, more valuable than all the material riches of the earth. That gift is the endowment of happiness and security which is felt so intensely at Christmas-time.

As one of the happiest little fellows of all time said, "God Bless Us, Every One!"

The quest for happiness has ever been the goal of mankind. Some find happiness in one way, some in another; there are many methods of searching for it. But whatever your way, may your fondest hopes be realized during this Christmas season of 1945.

At the same time, let us extend our deepest appreciation for everything you have done for us in the past.

Hark The Herald Angels sing! Once again the air is filled with the Song of the Nativity . . . the music of the Spheres. Once again it is Christmas with all that this sacred season implies.

We hope that this Christmas of 1945 will be a truly happy Christmas for you and those you love.

Merry YULETIDE

There are ever so many ways of extending the season's greetings to cherished friends, but nothing seems quite so sincere as the good old way which is cheerfully repeated so much—
"A Merry Christmas To You"
