Native Laces & Textiles Advertises Nationally

The Post this week received an attractive reprint of a full-page advertisement run in the Daily News Record, a textile publication, by Native Laces & Textiles Inc., the firm which has been considering a location in Dallas Township.

The advertisement states that "in the past few years Native Laces and Textiles absorbed enough raw materials to supply the lace requirements of 11,000,000 women. A great percentage of this yarn was converted to war use—but it was this very war emergency that increased the efficiency of Native Lace in mass production and advanced its knowledge of distribution methods. Right now the firm is extending its output more than ever—bringing its war experience into full peacetime play."

Native Lace manufactures laces, rayons, cottons, spun elastics, and hosiery mesh. Two of its leading trademarked products are Lady Louise Fabrics and Native Laces.

Collect Three Truck Loads Of Clothing

Although the Back-Mountain's drive for used clothing lasted less than a week instead of the several weeks planned, considerable interest was shown and the campaign ended successfully Sunday afternoon when Nort Bert, Franklin Street, took three loads of clothing in the Dallas Post's truck from the Methodist Church to the Lehigh Valley station in Wilkes-Barre. Rev. Frederick Rienturf and young Billy Bert helped load.

As an indication of the genuine spirit shown by local people, it was noticed that the gifts were considerably cleaner and more neatly packaged than many of the others at the station.

Jackson Couple Perish As Home Burns To Ground

Isolated Location And Lack Of Water Supply Hampers Fire Fighters

A Jackson Township couple perished in a raging fire that completely destroyed their home Friday night while Dr. Henry M. Laing Volunteer Fire Company and Lake Silkworth Fire Company were helpless to check the flames with an inadequate water supply.

The victims were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Perkins, Schooley Hill. The body of Mr. Perkins, 54, was found near the doorway on the ground floor where he died in an attempt to escape. His wife, Elizabeth, 52, suffering from injuries in a leap from a high porch, as well as from severe burns, died five minutes after admittance to Nanticoke State Hospital.

The fire was discovered at 10:30 by a neighbor, J. W. Vakes, when he was awakened by a dog's barking. A son of the couple, Thomas, who lives nearby, was summoned, and the two attempted to enter the house but were driven back by the fire.

Mrs. Perkins, a cripple for several years, was discovered on a high porch roof, about thirty feet from the ground, and after rescue by ladder proved futile, she leaped, hoping her fall would be broken by neighbors who stood below.

The house, built in 1928, was owned by the Perkins family, and State Fire Inspector Al Wilson estimated the loss at $4,000.

The family lived in Nanticoke before moving to Jackson Township. Mr. Perkins was employed by the Scranton-Spring Brook Water Company.

Surviving are four children: Franklin and Mrs. Stella Everts, Hunlock Creek; James, at home; and Thomas; several grandchildren and Mr. Perkins' mother, Mrs. Thomas Perkins, Buffalo, N.Y. Several brothers and sisters of both Mr. and Mrs. Perkins also survive.

Two sons, Thomas and James were discharged recently after long military service.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon from a funeral home in Nanticoke. Rev. Frank K. Abbott, Jackson Township Methodist Church, officiated. Casket bearers for Mrs. Perkins were William Palmer, Henry Millner, George Croom, Stanley Cholewa and John Bowers. Casket bearers for Mr. Perkins were Vernon Cease, Dennis Bonning, Albert Splitt, Joseph Zbick, Frank Stolarick and Luther Cease. Interment was in Everts Cemetery, Hunlocks Creek.

Durbin Sunday School Class To Hold Social

The first project of Durbin Sunday School Class to make money for the Sanctuary Lights will be a Valentine Box Social, held on Tuesday evening, February 12th at 6:30 o'clock in the Methodist Church Social rooms. The Ladies will pack lunches to be sold at auction by Mrs. R. M. Bodycomb assisted by Mrs. Arthur Culver.

The program for the evening will be very informal: Some Dallas girls will tell "Why they never got married." Wouldn't you like to hear about some Dallas courtships? Mrs. Harold Payne will sing several solos. Then too, one of Dallas' outstanding tenors will sing a love song to one of Dallas' most beautiful Sweethearts. Mrs. Robert Van Horn will be the "Post Lady" and will deliver mail. There will be games, and an entertainer will be on hand with his best jokes. Mrs. Harry Snyder and Mrs. Thomas Cease will receive the guests. Mrs. Raymond Kuhnert is Chairman, assisted by Mrs. Robert Van Horn and Mrs. Niles M. White.

I asked him if he were married and he said it was a military secret. . . . And then there's the latest story I heard about why the war was almost over. Somebody asked why and they said they were already disarming the WAC's—shortening their finger nails.
