

Neighborhood Notes And News Of Local Church Doings

Purely Personal

Office Phone 300

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fink Sr. of Shavertown entertained over the weekend Mrs. William O'Donnell of Stamford, Conn. Mrs. O'Donnell is the widow of Cliff Jr.'s tail gunner who was killed while with another crew over Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. James Durkin attended the wedding of Mrs. Durkin's sister, Mary Carol Edmondson to Grier Youngman Boedker at Trinity Lutheran Church, Danville on Saturday afternoon at four.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bettinson, New York City, visited Mrs. Bettinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton Culp, and family of Huntsville over the weekend.

We had a nice card from Dan Shaver this week from Miami. Said the temperature ranged from 70 to 75 degrees and he was getting a good coat of tan. He's thoroughly enjoying the horse and dog races.

Bill Powell of Shrineview is spending sometime at Miami, Fla.

Announcement has been made of the birth of a son, James Murray, to Mr. and Mrs. James Murray of Flushing, L. I., at General Hospital, Sunday, February 24. Mrs. Murray is the former Betty May Tippet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tippet of Pioneer avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Gordon Mathers of Trucksville left on Friday to spend three weeks at Miami, Fla.

George Budd of Druid Hills, Shavertown, is spending sometime at Miami.

Mrs. W. O. Washburn of N. River street and West Dallas has been critically ill at General Hospital. All of her children and her sister, Elizabeth from California have been called home. Her friends and neighbors in the Back Mountain area are praying for her.

Clifford Fink Jr., is the proud possessor of a new Hudson car. Cliff, former lieutenant in the Air Corps, and his wife have been staying with the Clifford Fink, Sr., at Shavertown ever since his honorable discharge.

Wayne Elston Seaman 1/C who is stationed in Philadelphia spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Elston of Kunkle. Wayne came home for the Father-Son banquet.

Mrs. Frank Smith has been ill at her home in Kunkle for several weeks.

A number of Kunkle ladies attended the reorganization meeting at Beaumont Cannery Monday evening. They were Mrs. Fred Dodson, Mrs. Ralph Hess, Mrs. Ralph Elston, Mrs. Jason Kunkle, Mrs. Olin Kunkle and Mrs. Stella Isaacs. Mrs. Alden Deats was chosen new president of the Cannery.

Mrs. Roy Schultz and Mrs. R. A. Davis of Alderson were luncheon guests of Mrs. Alan Kistler Sr., at her home on Main Street, Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday.

Miss Mary Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jackson, Beaumont, and Miss Betty Collett, Kingston, spent the weekend in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Daniel Oakes Sr. and son, Glenn of Athens, spent the weekend with the former's brother, Harvey Kitchen of Tunkhannock R. D.

The Post had a nice visit with Scott Newberry Tuesday morning who walked all the way in from beyond Fernbrook section to pay his subscription. He looked hale and hearty with cheeks as red as apples. Mr. Newberry is seventy-four.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loza and daughter, Shirley of Harrison, N. J., spent the weekend with Mrs. Loza's mother, Mrs. Anna Loza, of Shavertown. Mrs. Loza celebrated her 85th birthday anniversary on Tuesday.

George Smith, Jr., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, of Alderson.

Henry Lee, student at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston, is spending ten days at his home on Machell avenue. Henry has just completed his sophomore year.

Mrs. Lester Evans of Midland Drive has recovered from a recent illness.

Tommy and Bobby Richardson of Terrace street spent the weekend visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson of Fleetville.

Mrs. Doyle Roberts of Davenport street has as guests her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roberts. Harold who has been stationed in San Francisco for the past two years has received his honorable discharge. They will make their home with Mrs. Roberts temporarily. Bob Roberts who is stationed at Indiantown Gap also visited his mother this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James York of Davenport street had as guests for a week their daughters, Mrs. Charles Speck and son, Robert, and Mrs. Edward Koenig and David of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George Orcutt of Noxen are spending several months in Florida. The Orcutts couldn't get reservations so they're living in a trailer.

C. E. Eipper who is employed in Philadelphia spent the weekend with his family on Demunds road.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson and son, Sherwood of Kingston were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Edwards and family of Trucksville over the weekend.

Paul Redmond who has been enjoying a furlough at his home in Shavertown reported last Wednesday to Camp Meade and expects to leave for overseas duty shortly. Paul has reenlisted.

Mrs. Harry Ohlman has been ill at her home on Machell avenue.

Mrs. Digby Baltzel of Huntsville road has recovered from a recent illness.

Miss Miriam Lathrop was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Fleming over the weekend while the library furnace was being repaired.

Mr. and Mrs. David Deater of Harvey's Lake had as guests this week their son and new daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Deater.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Smith and the former's mother, Mrs. W. J. Smith moved from Gates street, Wilkes-Barre to Mill street, Dallas, Tuesday.

Young Jimmy Kozemchak, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kozemchak of Huntsville has been ill.

Pvt. Donald D. Smith of Fort Belvoir spent the weekend with his wife at Kitchen's Mountain View Inn. Mrs. Smith is the former Mildred Kitchen.

Mrs. Lee Zimmerman of Alderson is a patient at General Hospital.

Mrs. Harvey Kitchen of Tunkhannock R. D. who has been a patient at General Hospital for two weeks, returned to her home at Kitchen's Mountain View Inn and is slowly improving.

Miss Florence Ward who is doing private duty at General Hospital spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Ward of Alderson.

Mrs. Ruth Kittle, who has been living in Hattiesburg, Miss., has returned to Sweet Valley R. D.

Ray Chisko, formerly of Dallas R. D. 2, has moved to 34 Meyers street, Edwardsville.

Miss Audrey Morris of Overbrook avenue spent the weekend in Bethlehem where she attended the wedding of her cousin, Miss Betty Varner.

Mrs. William Morris of Overbrook avenue has received word that her son, Melvin, has been promoted to staff sergeant. He is still stationed in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Owens had as guests over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walter and son, Thomas, of Berlin, Conn.

Charles Mekeel has been ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. Richard Owens of Davenport street.

Mrs. George Brown has returned to her home at Carverton after being a patient at Nesbitt Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanson and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dodd of Har-

Miss Pauline Shaver, Honored At Shower

Miss Pauline Shaver, bride-elect, was guest of honor at a variety shower given by Miss Jane Case at her home at Glenview Terrace, Shavertown, recently. Yellow jonquils, surrounded by green pine, and yellow tapers made an attractive centerpiece. Guests were Mrs. Frank Davies, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Robert Ray, Miss Doris Stookey, Miss Alice Shaver, Mrs. John Reese, Mrs. Nelson Shaver, Mrs. Russell Case, Miss Anna Mae Wilson, Miss Margaret O'Boyle, Miss Ruth Drake, and Miss Margaret Brace.

Have New Son

Rev. and Mrs. Frederick Reinfurt announce the birth of a son, Frederick Lewis, at Nesbitt Hospital Wednesday, February 27. The Reinfurts have two other children, Carolyn Mae, aged nine, and Donald William, aged seven. By strange coincidence the joyful birth of young Fred was saddened by the death of the Reverend's grandmother, Mrs. Sarah K. Ellwanger of Port Jervis, N. Y., at almost the same hour. Mrs. Ellwanger, aged 88, is a former resident of Wayne County, Pa.

Emory Kitchens, Guests At Shower On Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Kitchen, Davenport street, entertained at a shower for Mr. and Mrs. Emory Kitchen Saturday night. Many gifts were received by the couple.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roote, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Kitchen and son Jackie, Mrs. Wilbert Hoover and granddaughter Nancy Lou, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Traver and children Billie, Patsie and Marcia, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Kitchen and daughters Sarah and Nellie, Mr. and Mrs. John Kitchen, Mrs. Hazel Honeywell, Anna Arbach, Mrs. Hilda Hughes, Mrs. Jeff Wagner, Doris Wandall, David Kitchen, Rosamond Howell, Walter Kitchen, Elizabeth Kitchen, Louis Kitchen, Mrs. William Globe, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Kitchen and the guests of honor.

Entertain For Brother

Mr. and Mrs. Laing Coolbaugh entertained in honor of the former's brother and family, Larry Coolbaugh of Palmyra, N. J., recently. The Larry Coolbaughs have been visiting friends and relatives here for the past week. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Coolbaugh, Rodney and Gail, Mr. and Mrs. Merten Coolbaugh, Laing and Merten, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Kunkle, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, Jane and Joan Coolbaugh, the host and hostess.

Have New Baby Boy

Mr. and Mrs. George Krout of Columbus, Miss., announce the birth of a son, George, Jr., Monday, February 18. Mrs. Krout is the former Miss Ruth Traver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Traver of Main street, Shavertown. The Krouts have one other son, Lee. Mr. Krout recently received his discharge from service with the Air Corps and expects to return to his position in Washington, D. C.

vey's Lake returned Sunday after spending several weeks in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Condoras are expected to return shortly after spending sometime in Florida.

Miss Elizabeth Kitchen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Kitchen of Davenport street, returned to Philadelphia on Sunday after spending several months in General Hospital and at her home. Elizabeth is employed at Strawbridge and Clothier's. On her way home for the holidays she had a serious automobile accident which hospitalized her.

Mrs. Harry Harter of Trucksville and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hildebrand of East Dallas are spending several weeks in Miami, Fla. They are registered at Hotel Plaza.

Mrs. Katie Wilson was hostess at an all-day quilting party for East Dallas W. S. C. S. yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hildebrand and Mrs. Charles Weiss of East Dallas spent Saturday in Philadelphia where they visited Mr. Weiss who is a hospital patient there.

The Alfred Rice family of Lehman have moved to their new farm at Jersey Shore, Pa.

Severn B. Newberry of Dallas and John Boyer of Harding spent last Friday and Saturday in New York City on business. Mrs. Newberry and son visited in Harding on Saturday.

MADE OF COKE, LIMESTONE, SALT 'N WATER — Full sleeves and a ventilated back are features of this bright red raincoat with sou'wester hat to match worn by Lucille Wall, of NBC's "Lorenzo Jones" radio dramas. The fabric, derived from coke, limestone, salt and water, is one of those miracles we heard about all during the war years. It is washable, will not stick, crack nor peel, has no odor and is, of course, waterproof. It's called Koroseal. The poodle is made of it too.

Betty Marie Anderson Becomes Bride Of Pfc. Harry A. Gross

Mrs. Ralph Kocher of Harvey's Lake announces the marriage of her niece, Betty Marie Anderson of Philadelphia and Harvey's Lake, to Pfc. Harry A. Gross of Williamsport. The ceremony took place in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Williamsport, on February 14.

Mrs. Gross is a graduate of Laketon High School and has been employed in Philadelphia for the past three years. Pfc. Gross was graduated from Williamsport High School and has been serving with the U. S. Army for the past forty-two months twenty-five of which were spent in the European Theatre of Operations. He has received his honorable discharge and accepted a position with the Spencer Foundry in Williamsport where the couple will make their home.

The Grosses returned to Williamsport Tuesday after spending a week as guests at the Kocher home.

Miss Elizabeth Parrish Becomes Bride Of Raymond A. Titus

Miss Elizabeth P. Parrish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Parrish of Main street, became the bride of Raymond A. Titus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond V. Titus of 95 River street, Forty Fort, at a double ring ceremony in Forty Fort Presbyterian Church on Sunday, February 24. Rev. Joseph Wiesley, pastor, performed the ceremony before an altar banked with snapdragons and palms. Mrs. John Lympany of Forty Fort presided at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of satin with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, long sleeves, and a full net skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias and baby breath.

Miss Doris M. Titus, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of powder blue satin with full net skirt and carried a bouquet of daffodils and baby breath. Her headdress was of blue net and matching flowers. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruth Drake, who was attired in a gown of yellow satin and a full net skirt and carried a bouquet of pink roses and baby breath and Miss Jean Ambosie, who selected powder blue satin with a full net skirt and carried African daisies and baby breath. Bridesmaids' headdresses were similar to the maid of honor's. Flower girls, both cousins of the bride, were Nancy Hand, who wore

Loveliest Messengers Of Good Cheer

Bright, gay flowers in a room make drab thoughts fly out of the window. So cheer your friends when they are ill with happy, fragrant flowers whose very presence hastens recovery. For gorgeous potted plants, beautiful flower arrangements, or dainty buds, phone us your order today.

HILL, THE FLORIST
SHAVERTOWN
Telephone Dallas 213

Huntsville Methodist Church Holds Quarterly Conference

Last Quarterly Conference was held in the Methodist Church at Huntsville recently. Rev. J. Roland Crompton, D. D., Wilkes-Barre District Superintendent, presided and spoke on Evangelism.

Rev. George S. Snyder, pastor, reported $800 had been spent on church repairs since last April and $241 paid on the "Crusade for Christ" fund.

J. Alfred Rogers was reelected trustee for three years. Other trustees are George A. Learn and William H. Evans. Rev. George Snyder and officers of all church organizations gave reports.

Stewards elected were: George Learn, Alfred Rogers, William Evans, Mrs. George Learn, Walter Palmer, Mrs. Jane Wagner, Mrs. Fred Weaver, Mrs. Clarence Elston, Paul Gross, Ray Perrego, John Pauling, Miss Laura Smith, Mrs. Harry Edwards, Alden Wagner, Mrs. Ray Perrego.

Committees elected: Membership, Mrs. George Learn, Alice Newhart, Mrs. Jean Johnson; finance, Alden Wagner, Alfred Rogers, Mrs. Harry Edwards; pastoral relations, William Evans, J. Alfred Rogers, Mrs. Ray Perrego; nominations, Rev. Snyder, Mrs. Fred Weaver, Mrs. Clarence Elston, Paul Gross; audit, Mrs. George Learn, Walter Palmer; records, Mrs. George Learn, Mrs. George Lamoreaux; hospitals and homes, Mrs. John Wagner, Mrs. James Harrison; church board of education, the church school superintendent and teachers in the church school; evangelism, William Evans, Mrs. Celeste Tribler, Mrs. Alden Wagner; visitation, Granville Carey, Melvin Wagner, John Pauling; music, Alfred Rogers, Mrs. George Ide, Mrs. James Harrison, the pastor; parsonage, the executive board of the W. S. C. S. with the president as chairman; property, the trustees.

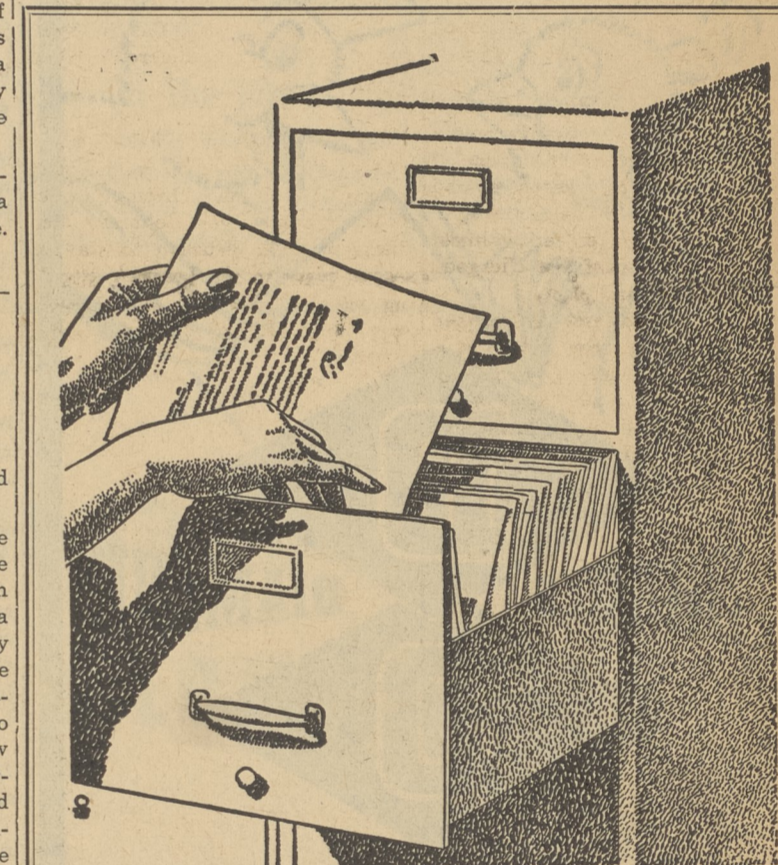

A covered dish supper was served to Dr. J. Roland Crompton, Rev. and Mrs. George S. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Ira VanOrden, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Alden Wagner, Alden, Jr., and Carol Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pauling, Jack Pauling, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Newcomb, Teddy Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Learn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Randall, Mrs. Earl Balliet, Mrs. Frank H. Johnson, Mrs. Celeste Tribler, Mrs. Melvin Wagner, Mrs. Albert Cadwalder, Lois Cadwalder, Mrs. Sarah Rogers, Mrs. Clarence Elston, Mrs. Harry Edwards, Mrs. Fred Weaver, Frank Prutzman, Donald Perrego, Ray Perrego, J. Alfred Rogers.

Baby Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler of Spokane, Washington, announce the birth of a seven and a half pound baby girl. Mrs. Chandler is the former Romaine Covert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Covert of Lehman. This is the Covert's first grandchild.

a canary yellow dress with square neckline and puffed sleeves, and Marion Lee Jenkins, similarly dressed in pink. Both carried baskets of pink and white carnations.

Lewis Nino was best man and ushers were Thomas Millington, Edward Kashuba and William Stone.

ORDERLINESS In Your Affairs

Proper business forms can make the daily routine of operating your business much simpler and save hours of wasted effort on the part of you and your employees.

A simple purchase order, for example, can help to keep your purchases straight. An inexpensive Government postal card printed with your name and business address can facilitate correspondence and save hours of struggling with a typewriter every month. These simple economical printed forms get work done in a jiffy.

Think of us when you think of printing. We have the craftsmen, the equipment, the materials and the "know-how" to do your next printing job quickly and to your satisfaction.

The DALLAS POST PRINT SHOP

"Printing is the inseparable companion of achievement"

This line set in Stymie Medium, a sturdy modern typeface tuned to the times and modern business.

SHAVER THEATRE

Shavertown

FRIDAY-SATURDAY

"Her Highness and the Bellboy"

with June Allyson, Robert Walker, Hedy Lamarr

SAT. MAT. 2 P. M.—NEWS

MONDAY-TUESDAY

"The Fighting Guardsman"

Willard Parker, Anita Louise

COMEDY

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY

"The Cat and the Canary"

with Bob Hope, Paulette Goddard

CARTOON-SPORT REEL