CENTERMORELAND GIRL, NOW IN WASHINGTON, HAS PICTURE IN LIFE

Pictured in last week's issue of Life magazine is Miss Ada Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Jackson, of Center Moreland. She is flanked by two huge stacks of testi-mony of the Pearl Harbor hear-ings which fill sixty-one volumes, totaling twelve times the length of "Gone With the Wind."

Miss Jackson is a graduate of Dallas Township High School and is employed as a teletype operator in the Senate Office Building.

Editor's Note: What inter-ested us most was that Miss Jackson displayed the nicest pair of Nylon clad legs that have gone out of the Back Mountain Region in years.

"Questions People Ask"

The concluding service of a series on "Questions People Ask" will be held at Dallas Methodist Church service Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Subject: "Does Charity Be-gin at Home?"

Aged Woman Dies At Trucksville

Mrs. Cease, 92, Came From Line of Patriots

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma S. Cease, 92, descendant of an illus-trious line of military men, will be held tomorrow afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ray-mond A. Finney, Carverton Road, Trucksville.

Mrs. Cease, the widow of Charles W. Cease, was born in Plymouth September 17, 1853, and after her marriage lived in Nanticoke and Dorrancton until the death of her husband twenty-two years ago after which she lived with her daughter. She was the daughter of Ira and Mary Smith Ransom of Plymouth. Her father served in the Civil War, and her grandfather, Colonel George P. Ransom, fought in the Revolu-tionary War, for eight years en-listing as a drummer, under General Washington.

Through her great grandfather, Captain Samuel Ransom, who came from Ipswich, England, she was related to Mrs. Adda Ransom Gar-inger, who was buried on Wednes-day.

Mrs. Cease came from a family noted for its longevity. Her father lived to be ninety-five and her mother, ninety. Her grandfather, Colonel Ransom, died at the age of eighty-seven, while her great grand-father fell in the Battle of Wyom-ing.

She suffered a broken hip five years ago, and due to her advanced age, was forced to remain a shut-in for the rest of her life.

She was formerly a member of the Dorrancton Methodist Church and on moving to Trucksville trans-ferred her membership to the Trucksville Methodist Church.

Besides her daughter, a son, War-ren R. Cease, Erie, and a grand-daughter, Doris R. Finney, at home, survive.

Rev. George Roberts will officiate and interment will be in Lehman Cemetery. Arrangements by Ralph L. Brickel, Dallas.

Bible Class Meets

Men's Bible Class of Lehman Methodist Church held a meeting Wednesday evening in the Church basement. Thirty men, including guests from the Jackson and Ide-town charges were present. Games were played and an evening of fellowship was enjoyed. Refresh-ments were served and a motion picture on the Dominican Republic was shown.

Nominating Committee Named By Rotaryans

Dallas Women of Rotary held their annual monthly dinner meet-ing last Thursday at Turner's res-taurant in Kingston. Mrs. James Lacy, Mrs. George Metz and Mrs. Harry Ohlman served on the com-mittee and Mrs. John M. Corliss presided.

The club voted to make contri-butions to the annual Red Cross Drive, to Dallas and Shavertown Teen-Age Centers and the veterans' Home in Trucksville.

Mrs. Budd Schooley was appoint-ed to get information on the Cancer Clinic at Wilkes-Barre, and a nom-inating committee, consisting of Mrs. Warren Veisley and Mrs. Os-wald Griffith, was appointed to se-lect a slate of officers for the com-ing year.

Miss Mildred Gittens entertained with a program of musical selec-tions.

Huntsville Class Holds Meeting Friday Night

Friendship Class of Huntsville Christian Church held its monthly meeting at the church Friday night. Following the business meeting games were played and refresh-ments served. Present: Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Culp, Wendell Jones, Phyllis Elston, Hannah Culp, Royal Culp, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brobst, Mrs. Ed Hopa, Mrs. Jeff Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Culp, Mrs. L. M. Culp, Mrs. Iva Jones, Edith Dietz, Carl Warmouth, Mrs. Elva Warmouth, Mrs. Wilbur Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Mauro.

Mrs. Crocker Buried

Funeral services for Mrs. Grace Watt Crocker, wife of D. H. Crocker, Wilkes-Barre, were held from the late home Saturday afternoon with large attendance. She was the mother of Mrs. Milford Shaver, Center Hill road, Dallas.

Rev. William K. Russell, St. Ste-phen's Episcopal Church, officiated and interment was in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre. Pall bear-ers were L. H. Howe, George F. Frey, Louis Leger, Arthur Schrage, R. B. Watt and Herbert Austin.

Dallas Borough Jayvees Defeat Dallas Township

Dallas Borough Junior Varsity flattened Dallas Township JayVees 40-21 on the Borough floor Wednes-day afternoon. Allen Knecht, Bor-ough, was high score with four-teen. Jake Duda and Dick Peirce, Borough, and Warren Fowler, Township, had ten each. Other players were: Dallas Borough—Waters, no points; Shaver, four points; Price, two; P. Sedler, none and Harris, none. Dallas Township—Bunney, four; Hope, two; Kuhn-ert, four; Stine, none; Wallace, none; Veitch, one and Perrego, none. Officials were Steve Sedler, referee, and Tex Wilson, umpire.
