

Morgan Rowlands W.C.T.U. Holds District Meeting At Lehman Church

Trucksville Man Had Been Ill For Sometime

Scores of friends and neighbors gathered at the family home to pay tribute to Morgan Rowlands, Main Street, Trucksville, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were in charge of Rev. R. J. Rees of Kingston and Rev. Paul Harris of the Bethesda Congregational Church of Edwardsville. Burial was in Evergreen Cemetery. Pall bearers were sons and son-in-laws; John Rowlands, Richard Rowlands, William Rowlands, Morgan Rowlands, Frank Pugh, husband of the late Bessie Rowlands Pugh, and J. Albert Spare, husband of the former Mary Rowlands.

Mr. Rowlands, who was born in Wales, came to this country with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rowlands when he was just a boy. The family settled in Freeland where the older Mr. Rowlands worked in the mines. After the death of his father, fifty-eight years ago, Mr. Rowlands and his mother came to Edwardsville where he obtained employment at Kingston Coal Company. He married the former Mary Evans in 1893.

Well known in musical circles throughout the valley, Mr. Rowlands who had a natural tenor voice and delightful sense of humor, liked nothing better than to entertain church and civic groups with humorous ditties. After his retirement from Lehigh Valley Coal Company eight years ago, he became acquainted with the youngsters of the community while serving as watchman at the school crossing and for a short time as Trucksville truant officer. Recently he had busied himself with his flower garden and with his five granddaughters, Frances, Wilma, Dilys, Betsy and Judy, who lived just a stone's throw from his home.

Though he had suffered a stroke about a year and a half ago, Mr. Rowlands was getting along nicely, and was able to be out again. Two weeks ago, at the age of seventy-two he contracted pneumonia and died Monday morning, April 15 at General Hospital.

Besides his wife, he leaves the following children: Mrs. J. Albert Spare, Richard, John, William and
