Athletic Fields In Community Are Now The Greatest Need

The following essay written by Helen Stockel won second prize in the Frank H. Hemelright Memorial Essay contest sponsored by Dr. F. Budd Schooley for students of Dallas Borough High School.

To any normal development of a person's life a balance of physical and mental activity is essential. This can easily be understood by remembering that when we are tired from a day's work, a good book or a movie will satisfy us much more than an evening of skating or bowling. However, physical exercise will be sure to compensate an office worker for a day's strenuous mental activity. Physical or mental relaxation makes for a wholesome life and prepares the individual for compatibility and popularity. All of this may be summed up simply in the childhood rhyme, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," and vice versa.

We do not often think perhaps of this diversion of our time as it is explained because it comes as a natural affair. When we are tired from our work, we devote our time to leisure without too much concentrated thought. However we often find ourselves "in a rut," and it is well to consider the outlets for wise use of our spare time in order that we may have a change of scenery and a diversion of interests.

Although it is often the opinion of many people, it is far from true that the recreational facilities of the Back Mountain region are at a low ebb. What perhaps is the cause of the mistaken idea, is the lack of public enthusiasm and a well-marked hesitancy to use one's initiative in providing new and ever present forms of pleasure. With a little applied effort many inexpensive seasonal sports are to be found from which unestimated value in health and social construction may be received.

Among these we find skating, skiing, sledding and tobogganing in abundance throughout the winter months. Who among us doesn't thrill to the ring of skates on a glassy pond or the sting of wind and snow in a downhill feat of skill? In addition to what nature provides for us, Irem Temple Country Club this year has taken the trouble of installing a toboggan run. This of all things should inspire us with a yen for the cold and snow.

And then when spring rolls around again, there's the old favorite of nature lovers, fishing. This area certainly provides a variety of sources of amusement for the rod and reel addict. It's good relaxation and fun for those who like to gamble with luck.

Spring also brings long walks in the country and of course we can't exclude bike riding. Perhaps this suggestion sounds a bit gruesome to the adults, but for the younger set—well, strong muscles and narrow hips and waistlines (of the girls) will prove the value of it.

The warm weather seasons of the year open a vista of outdoor games and sports that can supply ample fun and recreation for everyone. Among these we include badminton, croquet and tennis. Plans have been discussed for providing a tennis court in back of the library. This would be a comparatively simple matter involving some local ambition with little expense.

Horseback riding is an ideal tonic for stuffy minds and is guaranteed to divert one's thoughts from the mental to the physical. Perhaps it is less practical for some of us so we turn on the water and go swimming.

This, beyond a doubt, is one of the most popular of the Back Mountain summer sports, the general favorites being the Country Club pool and Harvey's Lake. Swimming is the acknowledged medium of getting one's vitamin D via the sun, getting the most from a vacation, and keeping up the social contacts, so—see you at the lake.

Seriously, though, the summer is one of the nicest times of the year and without the shackles of war and rationing, we can again plan country jaunts with the fliver and pounds of hot dogs. Camping, too, holds forth an inviting hand. You needn't go far from the home loft to spend your days in nature's own.

When the leaves finally yield to the force of gravity and rabbits scurry in the brush, it's high time you brought home your first deer with dad. Yes, we know, hunting can be dangerous, but it's certainly a worthwhile sport, so why not

IDETOWN

Prof. and Mrs. B. E. Lord and Mary Jane and James of Kingston, who are spending this week at their cottage, were dinner guests on Sunday of Mrs. Della Parrish.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Donnelly and son, Jackie, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Williams and Marilyn, Nancy and Billy spent Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellsworth of Hamlin.

Ethel Ide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Ide, left on Monday for Knoxville, Tennessee, where she has accepted a position for the summer. In the fall she will attend the University of Tennessee there.

Thomas Colburn is spending the summer with his father, Thomas Colburn, Sr., of Larksville.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell and daughters, Betty Marion and Roberta Louise, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mathews of Chenango Bridge, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fronzoni of Hillside.

Mrs. William Weaver and son, William Weaver, Jr., and Mrs. Margaret Jennings attended the Long reunion and Patterson Grove Camp Meeting on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Huff and family of Kingston are moving this week into their summer home.

Wesley Hilbert, Jr., of Easton spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Hilbert.

SWEET VALLEY

Guests for Sunday dinner at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Klinetob and daughter, Bess, on Sunday were: Mrs. O. L. Harvey, Dallas; Mrs. William Schmolli, East Dallas; and Mrs. Fay Brown, Lehman. Other callers during the day were: Mr. and Mrs. Lacie Klinetob, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willard, Shirley Willard and Gladys Whitebread, Moosic; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steltz and Oliver Williams, Shavertown; Boyd Scott, Berwick; Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan and Misses Ida and Olwyn Rosser, Kingston; Mrs. Ralph Frantz, Huntsville; Mrs. Charles Schmolli and son, Wayne, East Dallas; Mrs. Thomas Cease and son, Allen, Dallas.

Mrs. Catherine LaBar of Huntsville's Creek spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Elizabeth Klinetob and daughter, Bess. Mrs. LaBar, whose father, the late William Rowlands, was one time minister of the Maple Grove charge, will be eighty-six in August. She is cheerful and witty and always a welcome visitor.

improve it by observing all the precautions.

So far we've been keeping you out-of-doors with Mom Nature, but if you need a roof over your head to enjoy yourself, we've a place for you too. Movies seem to be the first resource. The addition of a town library has undoubtedly rendered a great service to the whole Back Mountain area. We wonder now how we ever got along without it.

The patience and guidance of civic leaders in supporting the Teen-Age house are greatly to be appreciated. It has made many an evening gay that would have been dull otherwise.

With all the possibilities that have been mentioned it must be admitted that there is still room for improvement. The proposed Community Center seems to be the solution to most of our present needs. A bowling alley in the Community Center is one of the additions we would do well to have.

The hope of the region lies in that Community Center. Let's bring it into the not far distant future.

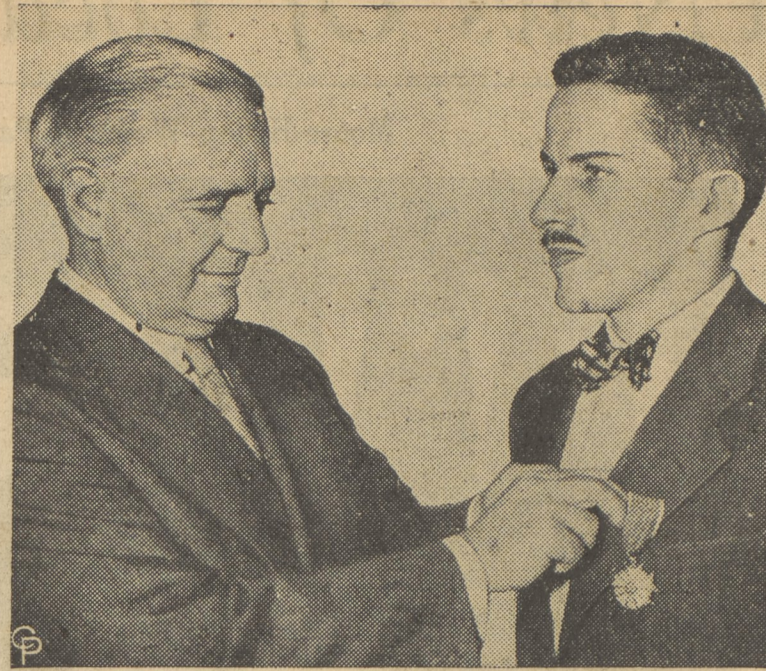

The one other necessity requisite for good recreation is an athletic field. It should be first of all large and in a central location. It would afford fair grounds for interscholastic as well as locally sponsored games.

It is the problem of the entire region and as such, should be treated in a cooperative manner, deserving immediate attention.

In the past, the region united definitely for the common good has been powerful in bringing ideals into reality. Since the need has arisen we must be confident that even more will be accomplished in the future. Let us not put off singly until tomorrow what we can accomplish with unity today.

Forty-Eight Woman's Club Members Enjoy Dinner At Country Club

Forty-eight members and guests attended the dinner meeting of Dallas Woman's Club at Irem Temple Country Club Wednesday evening.

Reports on the recent meeting of Woman's Clubs held at Hotel Altamont, Hazleton, were given by Mrs. Granville Sowden, Mrs. Niles White and Mrs. John Corlis. A brief impromptu talk on progress made in the Back Mountain area was given by Sgt. Patricia Reynolds, a guest, who has just returned after spending three years serving with the WACS in the Pacific. A musical program was furnished by Miss Dorothy Nagle and Miss Ann Mae Dorsic of College Misericordia. Miss Lillian Job of Wilkes-Barre gave an interesting talk on the romance and legends connected with birth stones.

Next meeting of the club will be September 11 at the Country Club and next meeting of the Executive Board will be a dinner meeting at Goodleigh Farms, August 26, when Board members will be guests of Miss Mary Weir.

Names of prospective new members should be turned into Mrs. Howard Hendricks, Lehman, before the fall meeting.

Present at the meeting were: Mesdames W. H. Bonn, Willard

Storm Damages Trees

A large limb from one of the maple trees in Dallas Borough School yard was blown across one of the entrances to the school during the severe wind and hail storm on Saturday night. In falling it broke off several live electric wires. A large tree on Lake street in front of Prof. Brace's property was also blown down.

SAFETY VALVE

Mr. Riskey: We were so happy when we saw our books, this afternoon. We read them. Thank you, so much.

Second Grade, Dallas Schools June 5, 1946

● To the Second Grade of Dallas schools goes the distinction of being one of the youngest classes to publish a book. Subject of this first venture was: "Our Trip to Machel's Farm at Milking Time." Anyone who would like to know how to milk a cow should read this book as written by the pupils of the Second Grade.—Editor.

Local Churches Sponsor Soft Ball League

Four Back Mountain Churches will sponsor a softball league under the direction of George Russ, Sunday School teacher at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown, during the summer months. They are St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown Methodist, Dallas Methodist and Huntsville Methodist.

The following schedule has been arranged: Tuesday, June 18 at 6:30, St. Paul's boys will play Shavertown Methodist on St. Paul's field and Dallas will play Huntsville on the Dallas field; Tuesday, June 25, St. Paul's will play Huntsville on Farm at Milking Time. Anyone who would like to know how to milk a cow should read this book as written by the pupils of the Second Grade.—Editor.
