Married In South Dakota

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM TEMPLIN

Miss Helen H. Halonen Becomes Bride Of William C. Templin

The marriage of Miss Helen H. Halonen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halonen of Hayti, South Dakota, and William C. Templin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Templin of Cemetery street, Dallas took place at a pretty church wedding Sunday afternoon, June 6 at 4 o'clock in the First Lutheran church at Lake Norden with the Rev. Keller of Arlington, officiating at the candle-light ceremony. A large basket of piccadilly gladioli adorned the chancel and a bouquet of colorful garden poppies centered the piano.

Mrs. G. Shaha played the processional and recessional and was the accompanist for Miss Cecile Jacobson, who sang two numbers "Bless This House" and "Through the Years." Mrs. Jack Lang sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride, maid of honor, and the two bridesmaids, all wore white, and the two soloists wore blue formals, harmonizing with the white and blue color theme chosen by the bride.

A gown of white transparent chiffon velvet and lace, fashioned on semi-princess lines with long train, and sweetheart neckline and long sleeves was worn by the bride. Her finger-tip veil of bridal illusion had a lady coronet headdress and she wore a gold locket, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations with center of red roses, with white satin ribbon streamers.

Miss Faye Inman of Watertown, maid of honor, wore a white satin gown with full net skirt and net yoke, and carried a bouquet similar to the bride's. Her chapel veil with scalloped edge was held in place by a white gardenia.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Robert Hand of Linden, Ia., sister of the bride, and Miss Lois Wheelon of Sioux Falls, wore identical gowns of white marquisette, princess style, with full gathered skirts trimmed with lace. Their scalloped edged chapel veils matching their gowns, were held by gardenias. Their bouquets of white carnations and red roses had pastel green streamers.

The bride's gift to her attendants were alike. They were small gold, heart-shaped lockets on narrow white velvet ribbons which they wore around their necks.

The bridegroom's attendant was Oswald Halonen, a brother of the bride. Paul Halonen, the bride's brother, and Edward Seppala ushered.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors which were decorated in white and blue. The bridal table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake with bride and groom ornament, and bouquets of white and blue garden flowers and harmonizing candles in crystal holders were used at either end.

During the reception, Miss Vesta Hand of Linden, Ia., accompanied by Mrs. Shaha, sang two selections, "Indian Love Call" and "My Task."

The bride's mother wore a tan net dress, yellow straw hat with black veil and corsage of gardenias. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Hendrickson, Mrs. H. Kangas, Miss Vesta Hand, Miss Janet Dickson, Mrs. J. Luckonen and Mrs. William Yvanon.

Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Waino and children, Rantala and Toivo, of Virginia, Minn., Mrs. Robert Hand and Miss Vesta Hand of Linden, Ia., Mr. Robert West, Misses Delores and Lois Wheelon of Sioux Falls, Mr. and Mrs. B. Polluck, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lang, Mrs. Opal Elwein, Mrs. B. E. Engen, Mrs. Earl Perkins, Mr. Floyd Perkins, Miss Faye Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beskow and daughter, Miss Marilla Beskow, all of Watertown.

Mrs. Templin is a graduate of the Hayti High School, Commercial college at Watertown, and has been employed at the Railway Express Agency at Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

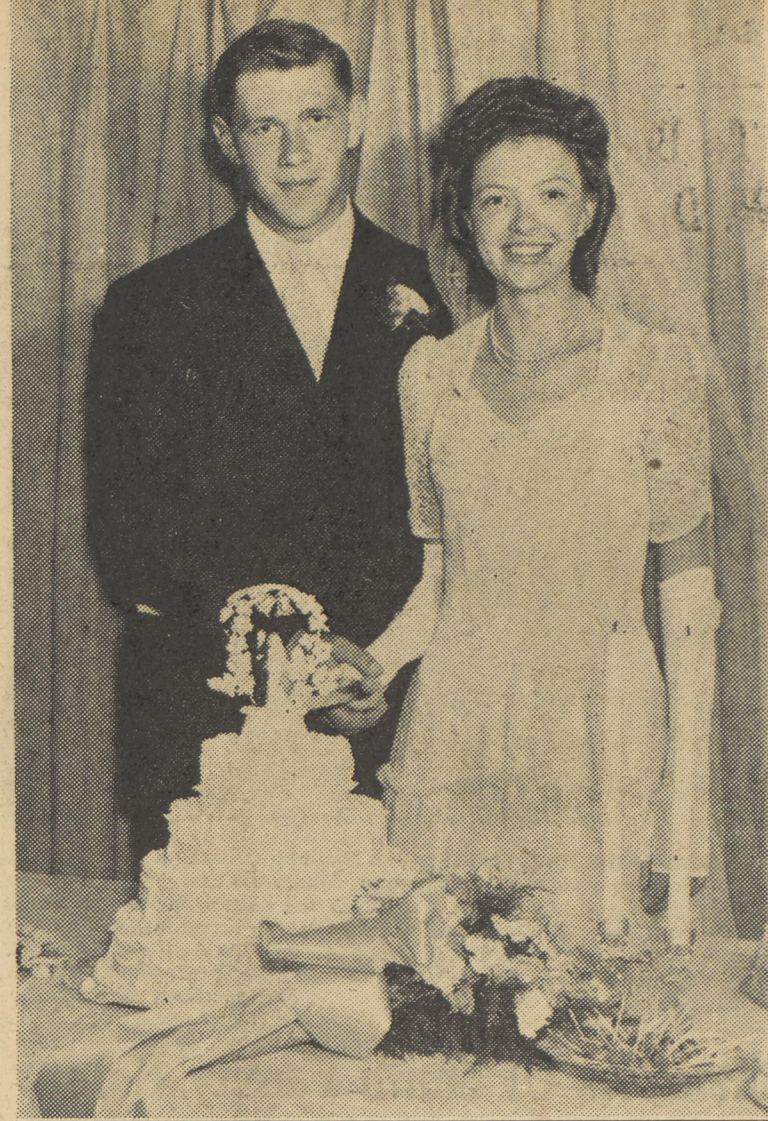

Mr. Templin is a graduate of the Dallas Borough High School and Dean School of Business of Wyoming Seminary. He enlisted in the army air forces in July, 1942, and received his discharge in February, 1946. He served as a radio operator on a B-25 and B-17.

The Templins are making their home at Factoryville where Bill is distributor for the Rawleigh products.

Wed In St. Paul's Church

Miss Marian Louise Stark Is Bride Of Thomas Templin

Miss Marian Louise Stark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Dougherty, Madison street, Wilkes-Barre became the bride of Thomas Templin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. W. Templin of Dallas on Saturday afternoon, July 6, at 2.

Rev. Herbert Frankfort performed the double ring ceremony in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown. White snapdragons, ferns and white lighted candles adorned the church pulpit.

Mrs. Lester Yeager of Northampton, aunt of the bridegroom, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Robert LaFrance, Sr., of Meshoppen, aunt of the bride.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white gown with lace bodice, heart shaped neckline, lace sleeves and full skirt of floor length. Her finger-tip veil of illusion fell from a high beaded crown arranged with clusters of lilies of the valley. She carried a white Bible with white sweet peas. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls. Miss Elizabeth Jones of New York, cousin of the bride, and maid of honor, chose a blue taffeta gown with sweetheart neckline, full skirt and shoulder length veil. She carried pink carnations and pink snapdragons. Misses Dorothy and Doris LaFrance of Meshoppen, cousins of the bride, bridesmaids, wore pink gowns, fitted bodices with heart shaped necklines, and long full skirts. They wore matching net veils of shoulder length and carried pink carnations and snapdragons. Miss Mary Alice Harris of Kingston, N. J., flower girl, wore a sheer white gown with white net veil and carried a basket of rose petals.

William Templin of Factoryville, formerly of Dallas, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Fred Templin, Dallas, brother of the bridegroom, and Robert LaFrance, Jr., Meshoppen, cousin of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a dusty pink crepe dress, white accessories and a shoulder bouquet of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother selected a gown of aqua crepe, white accessories and a shoulder bouquet of white sweet peas. A reception followed in church parlors of Shavertown Church.

The bride was graduated from Coughlin High School and Empire Beauty College. Mr. Templin is a graduate of West Pittston High School. He was honorably discharged from the Army with the rating of technical sergeant in December, serving 31 months overseas, 17 months of which were spent with the First, Third and Fourth Ranger Battalions.
