Beaumont Hears Wigden Singers

Beginning Tuesday evening, October 22 the Wigden colored singers will conduct a week of services at the Beaumont Baptist Church, concluding on Sunday evening, October 27. The Services will be conducted each night through the week and Sunday at 8:00 P.M.

The Wigden Singers are the outstanding singing and preaching trio of their kind in America today. They have traveled in most of the states and much of Canada. During the summer months they are greatly demanded at Bible conferences and Bible camps throughout the country.

The Trio, composed of three members of a family, two brothers and a sister, make an ideal team for the work in which they are engaged. Robert is the song leader and musical director of the group, originating many hymn interpretations. He is known especially for such solos as "Ship Ahoy", "Down Deep", "No Condemnation" as well as many standard church hymns and songs which bring new blessing by his unique style.

The Beaumont Church is located in what is known as the Union Church in Beaumont, on highway 309, between Tunkhannock and Dallas.
