Edgar S. Brace Is Laid At Rest

young student developed quickly as an athlete.

Although he participated in football, track and basketball, it was in the latter sport that he was particularly outstanding. He was graduated from Wyoming Seminary Cum Laude in 1914 and enrolled in Oberlin College, Ohio. There he had an equally brilliant academic career. His extra-curricular activities were distinguished chiefly by work in behalf of the Young Men's Christian Association. There as at Seminary he was an outstanding football, basketball and track athlete for four years.

His Army career was brief. Commissioned after he was graduated from Oberlin College, Ohio, in the spring of 1918, the war ended before he was assigned to overseas service.

After his discharge from serving with the Coastal Field Artillery as second lieutenant he returned to Wyoming Seminary as assistant to Coach Quay and as teacher of mathematics.

He continued in these capacities until ill health forced him to retire. In 1926 he was named head coach of football. He held the post for the following twenty years and when he ended his active career, also was coach of track and basketball.

Until he moved to Dallas four years ago, Coach Brace had resided in Kingstontown, where he was a member of the official board of Kingstontown Methodist Church. Since locating in Dallas, he has been active in the Methodist Church here as a member of its board of trustees and teacher of the Brace Men's Bible Class.

Coach Brace's other affiliations were with Masonic bodies, including the Shrine, Dieu Le Veut Commandery and Kingstontown Blue Lodge. He also was a member of Daddow-Isaacs Post of American Legion.

Surviving besides his mother,

Mrs. William Brace, of Plymouth, are his wife, the former Marguerite Thomas, of Plymouth; a son, Edgar S. Brace, Jr., at home; an employee of E. H. Rollins & Sons, investment bankers, Wilkes-Barre; a daughter, Miss Margaret Mary Brace, a teacher in the Dallas Borough schools, at home; also by two brothers, John L. Brace, of Plymouth, an attaché of the register of wills of office at the Luzerne County court house, and Richard Brace, manager of Hotel Redington.

Three Remain In Hospital

Six Other Accident Victims Are Discharged

Three persons are still in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital as the result of a three-car collision near VanCampen's Restaurant in Trucksville the night of January 4. Nine people in all were injured and two cars demolished in the accident.

Still in the hospital are Chester Adams, 28, 156 Sharpe street, Kingstontown; Mrs. Edith Daubert, 55, RD 3; Dallas, and Burton Daubert, 21, Larksville. Conditions of all are improving.

Those released during the week include Nellie Stritzinger, 17, Fernbrook; Mrs. Beverly Adams, 24, wife of Chester; Mrs. Catherine Daubert, 21, wife of Burton; John Hufford, 21, 22 Parrish street, Luzerne, and Raymond Gossart, 24, 108 Hughes street, Luzerne. Thomas Stritzinger, 21, Fernbrook, was released immediately after treatment the night of the accident.

According to Pvt. Sterling Sowden, Wyoming Barracks, State Police, the accident happened on the slight curve near VanCampen's. The cars driven by Hufford and Stritzinger were proceeding toward Luzerne and that of Adams in the opposite direction. Adams said that as he came around the curve the Hufford car was directly in front of him. Hufford was not sure how the accident happened. The two cars collided head on and the one driven by Stritzinger crashed into the wreck.
