

BASKETBALL ECHOES

By Larry

Dallas Borough and Dallas Township, first teams to play off the February 21 games cancelled by Old Man Winter, battled to the inevitable conclusion Tuesday evening. Borough had previously cinched its undefeated position by trouncing KT, last obstacle on its march to glittering heights.

Boy's Standings

| Team | W | L | % |
|-----------------|----|---|------|
| Boro. | 10 | 0 | 1000 |
| Harter | 6 | 3 | 666 |
| KT | 5 | 4 | 555 |
| Lehman | 3 | 6 | 333 |
| Laketon | 2 | 7 | 222 |
| Dallas Township | 2 | 8 | 200 |

Girl's Standings
Borough girls, too, went the route without a defeat, concluding the season with a Tuesday evening triumph over Township.

| Team | W | L | % |
|-----------------|----|---|------|
| Boro. | 10 | 0 | 1000 |
| KT | 6 | 3 | 666 |
| Lehman | 5 | 4 | 555 |
| Dallas Township | 4 | 6 | 400 |
| Laketon | 3 | 6 | 333 |
| Harter | 0 | 9 | 000 |

Borough Wins
With a comfortable half-time lead of 27-8 over KT Friday, Boro ran in every player on the squad and came out with a 46-27 victory. KT, evidently convinced of defeat toward the end and wishing to give its younger players some experience, also used everybody but the score-keeper. The total of 26 contestants amassed 48 fouls between them.

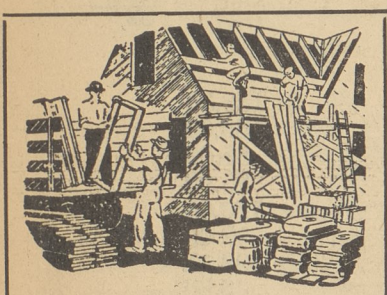

Boline, as usual, led KT with 13 counters. Kocher came through for Borough to roll up 13 pointers.

Harter Harries Dallas
Harter, slightly off form, could only roll up 32 points against Township, but this was more than enough to beat the local lads 19. Junevitz had 14 counts to pace Harter while the best Dallas could show was 6 tallies by Flower.

Lehman Takes Lake
Lehman, enjoying a good night and a 30-10 half-time score, played a scorers battle with Lake, coming out on the big end of a 56-38 final score. Westley had 25 points to cop honors for the game. Milauskus was in the follow up position with 24. Major, who looked good in the Harter game at the beginning of the season and then faded, re-found himself Friday to the tune of 15 tallies.

Both teams, out for the win, played their starting line-ups to the end of the game.

Girl's Games
Borough girls, able to beat any team in the league by their own say so, pulled a 41-37 triumph out of their fracas with KT Friday.

of nursery rhymes, nonsense rhymes and folk-songs.

There is a song about the chickadees, sung by my grandmother to an imposing number of grands and greatgrands as well as to eleven children of her own. There was another chickadee song, fairly common, which we have in its entirety, the one that starts out with "Twenty little chickadees standing in a row, Twenty pairs of naked feet buried in the snow." The rarer specimen of Chickadee-ana features a small child observing chickadees through the kitchen window, and deploring their lack of warm clothing. In one of the lines she begs her mother to find stockings and shoes for the little chickadees, and the refrain goes like this:

Chickadee-dee, chickadee-dee, Merrily singing his Chickadee-dee. There is another song, rendered lugubriously by my grandmother, which is considerably more robust in character than ditties about the chickadees, though it does embody the sentiments lying hidden behind the bees and the birds and the flowers. This song sets forth the tale of the old woman from somewhere or other, exact locality shrouded in a lapse of memory, who "loved her Old Man dearly, But another one twice as well." Wishing to rid herself of her spouse, she led him to the Old Mill and invited him to jump in the lake. A

Final Games
In the game with the fore ordained ending Boro beat Township 49-15 Tuesday evening on the losers floor. With Tondora held to 1 bucket, Fowler was high for Township with 7 counts. Kocher repeated his Friday night performance to lead Boro with 13.

Borough girls won over the Township lassies by 32-27. This is not the highest score the Township girls have compiled, but the close score indicates it was one of their best games.

Tunkhannock Over Lehman
Tunkhannock, a hot team in its own league, took over the Lehman Scotties, 35-30, Tuesday evening after a see-saw battle which saw Lehman ahead going into the last quarter.

Scottie JVs mopped up their Tunkhannock counterparts by a 24-21 decision.

Church Tilt
There will be a three way Church league tilt at Lehman gymnasium Wednesday evening. Proceeds to go to the Men's Bible Classes of Lehman and Meeker. Games will follow the big supper being put on by Lehman Methodist Church and will afford an opportunity to relax after the meal and enjoy some good sport.

The Year's Best Game
Best game of the year is being held tonight on the Dallas Boro. floor, starting at 7:30. When we say best game we mean just that. You all heard of the accident Joe LeGrand suffered, probably lots of you know the likeable boy personally. Tonight's action is in the form of a benefit for Joe, to help defray hospital and doctor expenses and to show that his friends will not let him down.

Joe is expected home from the Wills Eye Hospital this weekend but won't be here to see the American Legion and the Boro quintet tangle in what promises to be a good game. For added enjoyment Boro girls will risk their undefeated reputation at the hands of the Lehman Alumni team.

Tickets are on sale at LeGrand's Restaurant and other stores. They can also be purchased from students. Purchase of a ticket does not obligate you to be at the game, but be there if you can. Let's make it a big night for Joey.

Last Minute Correction
Just as we were about to lock up the forms news filtered in that the Joey LeGrand game had been postponed. A check with the school, where flu had 73 students out Thursday morning, confirmed the rumor. The game will be held at the earliest convenient date. This gives you more time to buy your ticket, which will still be good whenever the game takes place.
