Three Local Firms Join Blue Cross

Official approval to enter its ninth consecutive year of operation as a "Blue Cross Plan" has been received by Hospital Service Association of Northeastern Pennsylvania from the American Hospital Association's Blue Cross Commission, Chicago, it is announced following March meeting of board of directors of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Plan held recently in Wilkes-Barre general offices.

In line with approval standards which must be met annually by all of the non-profit Blue Cross Plans, including "equitable payments to hospitals" (for services rendered hospitalized Blue Cross members) and "sound financial condition", the N. E. Pennsylvania Plan is now completing issuing notices to group members of the slight rate increase effective April 1. The increase ranges from five cents to twelve and one half cents per per-person, with the new schedule on the semi-private agreements: "Individual", 85 cents; "2-Person", $1.70, and "Family", $2.25.

Group enrollment continues steadily throughout all thirteen of the Northeastern Pennsylvania counties served by this Plan, with these groups in this area among those recently enrolled: Hislop's Economy Market, Hislop's Restaurant, and L. E. Williams, at Alderton.
