Lehman Cannery Notes

The peak of canning season is here. This means a busy time at Lehman Community Canning Center. Doubtless, many questions arise in the minds of homemakers concerning the cannery. Here are some questions and answers:

What is the Lehman Community Canning Center?
Answer: The Cannery is a service to homemakers who wish to enjoy the company of others while they work and who wish to eliminate extra work at home. It is, also, open to churches and other community organizations.

Who may use the Cannery?
Answer: All persons are welcome to use the cannery regardless of residence.

Where is the Lehman Cannery?
Answer: It is located in the cafeteria at the Lehman High School in Lehman center.

How much does it cost to can?
Answer: Processing costs. All cans (except No. 10) and glass jars that require 45 minutes processing or less will cost 1c each.

All jars or cans requiring longer than 45 minutes to process will cost 2c each.

All No. 10 cans to process, 2c each. Can costs are:
No. 2 or pint can, plain, 3 1/2c; enamel, 4c; No. 3 or quart can, plain, 5c; enamel, 5 1/2c; No. 10 or 13 cups, plain, 9c; enamel, 10c.
