

Bedroom-Nursery for Small Home

Privacy for parents and the baby is provided in this smartly decorated bedroom in a small home. The nursery end, cleverly partitioned by a divisional drape hung on a track from the ceiling, does not detract from the decor of the room. The partition is glistening in a large, splashy floral pattern in tones of Grand Canyon rose and Prairie mauve. The large linen closet has sliding glass doors.

This attractive bedroom also demonstrates the versatility of the basic home furnishings color-cade plan. Great Lakes blue, Grand Canyon rose and Prairie mauve are the featured colors, with interesting accents in Great Smoky gray and Shenandoah green. Wall-to-wall carpeting in a smart tone-on-tone pattern in Great Lake blue, gives added spaciousness to the room.

The oldest National Guard organization in the United States - Pennsylvania's famous 111th Infantry - was founded in Philadelphia by Benjamin Franklin in 1747. -PNS

E. W. Keithline Dies Suddenly

Heart Attack Is Fatal To Mrs. Richards' Dad

Funeral services for Earl W. Keithline, 55, formerly of Shavertown, who died unexpectedly at Pottsville Monday afternoon at 12:30 following a heart attack which he suffered while driving to his home in Cressona, will be held this afternoon at 2 from 64 North Franklin street, Wilkes-Barre. Rev. Frederick W. Reinfort will officiate. Interment will be beside his wife in Fernknoll Burial Park.

Mr. Keithline had spent the weekend with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Richards, Saginaw street, Goss Manor. When he left Monday morning he was apparently not feeling up to par, but insisted on returning to his work although his daughter urged him to stay.

On the way he stopped in for a chat with his old fishing companion, Sheldon Evans and said that if he got feeling better he would return for a trip in the Spring.

Born in Wilkes-Barre and for several years a resident of Shavertown and Parsons, he was employed for the past fifteen years by the East Penn Transport Company of Pottsville. His wife Maude A. Keithline died on November 30, 1947.

Surviving are one son, Robert, of Williamsport; his daughter, Mrs. Daniel R. Richards, Dallas; his mother, Mrs. Amy MacCloskey, of Washington, D. C.; a brother, Jack MacCloskey, Washington, and two sisters, Miss June MacCloskey, of Kingston, and Mrs. P. B. Thomas of Baltimore, Md. Two grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Richard Robins Is Hostess To Scout Women

Mrs. Richard Robins was hostess to committee women of Girl Scout Troops 54 and 149 at a party at her home on Norton avenue last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Jack Barnes was presented with a gift. Present were Mrs. Jonathan Williams, Mrs. Peter Clark, Mrs. Ray Titus, Mrs. Jack Barnes, Mrs. William Diebert, Mrs. James Hilferly, Mrs. Thomas Bottoms, Mrs. F. B. Schooley and the hostess.

Sweet Valley Equipment Proves Effective At Fire

Hi-Pressure Fog equipment of Sweet Valley Volunteer Fire Company performed yeoman service a week ago Monday at a serious blaze in Mocannaqua where two homes were destroyed.

The Sweet Valley equipment, a departure from the usual type of rural fire fighting equipment, was found especially effective in the absence of a sufficient water supply. Three other companies at the scene, recognizing this, used their equipment to keep the Sweet Valley pumper supplied with water.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS

Our telephone lines are busy. Please do not take our time, or yours, by telephoning long items, box scores, weddings, and other events that have appeared in other newspapers.

It takes valuable time of someone in our office to copy down these facts and also ties up our phones. If you have such items that you may want published in The Post, simply tell us what paper it was in, on what date and page, and if we have the space we will be glad to republish the item.

When we are crowded, we do, however, give preference to news that has not appeared in other papers; and we are always glad to have new facts to add to any story. But please don't take our time with a verbatim recital of something that has been published elsewhere.
