Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Newberry of East Dallas will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary with open house for friends and relatives Sunday, April 18 from 2 until 5, and from 7 until 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Newberry is the former Jennie May, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anson May, and Mr. Newberry, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Norton L. Newberry, all of Beaumont. They were childhood sweethearts, attending the old Beaumont Academy together and finally marrying in the West Pittston parsonage April 16, 1898.

Prior to his marriage Mr. Newberry spent seven years in the West where he rode the range, sleeping nights in the fields with one buddy and a herd of cattle. Illness of his father who had been injured in the Battle of Gettysburg and lost his right arm, made him give up the cowboy life he so dearly loved and return to his homestead. Meanwhile Mrs. Newberry calmly taught school at Beaumont.

Starting in to learn the building business, Mr. Newberry plugged along until he finally became head foreman for some of the outstanding construction companies of the East, travelling here and there supervising the building of bridges, trestles, and foundations. He retired last year, then spent the year building his daughter and son-in-law, the A. A. Moores, a new store at East Dallas.
