Lions Nominate New Officials

Club Hears Talk On Rural Hospitalization

Back Mountain Lions Club met at Evangelical Church, West Nanticoke, Tuesday evening with Attorney Miner Aylesworth, vice president, presiding.

Dr. Lewis B. Thomas and Sherman Hoover reported on the donation of a community ambulance by a neighboring community and the offer was accepted. The following are members of the ambulance committee: Dr. Lewis B. Thomas, George Wesley, Fred Hontz, Luther Cragle and Warren Boston.

A committee consisting of Melvin Simons, Rev. A. Ward Campbell, M. L. Pollock and Attorney Aylesworth nominated the following to be elected June 15:

Atty. Miner Aylesworth, president; Alfred Bronson and Rev. A. Ward Campbell, first vice president; Fred Hontz and Ben Rosengrant, second vice president; Dr. Lewis B. Thomas, third vice president; Elwood G. Ruckel, recording secretary; Bernard Coyle, financial secretary; Bryan Culver, treasurer; Sheldon Jones, tail twister; Fred Hontz and Luther Cragle, lion tamer; Fred Hontz and Luther Cragle, directors for two years.

Kingsley A. Eckert, administrator of Nesbit Memorial Hospital, spoke on "Rural Hospitalization." He described the problems in construction, maintenance and operation of modern hospitals. Early diagnosis and use of preventive medicine have lessened average patient stay in the hospital, but hospitalization services which relieve patients of financial worry have increased patient census. Consequently all hospitals are crowded.

Public Health Services, Eckert said, have found it expedient to encourage construction of diagnostic centers with laboratories and X-ray equipment in rural areas, such centers to work in conjunction with the hospitals in urban areas.

The next meeting will be held at Evangelical Church on June 1. Arthur T. Thomas, Hanover Township, will be humorist and song leader.
