Weds Frederic Vallentri In Providence Church

Miss Dorothy Regina Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Sullivan of 16 Pocasset Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island, and Frederic Vallentri, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luigi Velletri of Elmdale avenue, Providence, Rhode Island, were married in a double ring ceremony in St. Anthony's Church, Saturday, September 4th at 10 10 o'clock. A high Nuptial Mass followed.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride had Mrs. George Stolarick of Lehman, her sister, as matron of honor, and Miss Ethel Rosanne Estus of Dallas, her niece as flower girl. Michael Verdecchia Jr., the bridegroom's nephew, was ring-bearer. His father was best man. The bride wore an ivory satin gown cut with a train, long tight fitted sleeves and a shirred yoke edged in lace and held in place with a clip of seed pearls. Her veil was of silk net, lace edged, with a crown of ivory satin rose buds. She carried a prayer book marked with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

The matron of honor chose a hyacinth blue faille gown with a sweetheart neckline, tight fitting bodice with puffed sleeves, and a full tiered skirt. She wore a matching headdress of feathers and silk net and elbow length mitts of shirred silk net. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and blue larkspur.

Ethel Rosanne Estus wore a dusty rose taffeta gown with tiny puffed sleeves, round neckline and yoke edged in baby ruffles of self material. The long, very full skirt ended with ruffled pick-ups to show a starched white embroidered petticoat. She wore a matching bonnet of shirred taffeta edged in a baby ruffle and tied under her chin with long matching streamers, and carried a colonial nosegay of pink rosebuds, baby yellow pompoms, and blue larkspur.

Mrs. Sullivan, mother of the bride, selected a black ensemble and shoulder corsage of white gladioli.

Mrs. Velletri also chose black and a shoulder corsage of white gladioli.

After a reception in McKenna-McAllister Post Hall, the couple left on a motor trip through New England. Mrs. Velletri chose a blue gabardine suit with matching top-coat and grey accessories for traveling. She wore a white orchid.

The couple will reside temporarily at 16 Pocasset avenue. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sullivan and family of Harrisburg, Mr. and Mrs. William Rodda and family of Boonton, N. ## A REALLY "FANCY" SPREAD!

A conserve which brings summertime delicacies to winter tables is Cantaloupe-Peach Conserve, easy to make but really a "fancy" spread with its blanched almonds and grated orange rinds to lend piquant flavors. This recipe from the famous Ball Blue Book of home canning tells you how to make the conserve.

- 4 cups diced cantaloupe
- 4 cups diced peaches
- 6 cups sugar

- 1/2 cup blanched almonds
  - 4 tablespoons lemon juice
  - 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 1 teaspoon grated orange rind
- Cook the cantaloupe and peaches together 20 minutes. Add sugar and lemon juice. Boil rapidly until thick. Add almonds, nutmeg, salt and grated orange rind. Boil three minutes, then pour, boiling hot, into jars. Seal.
