

BILL'S BITS

By Bill Hart

Tunkhannock will be out to put the finishing touches on their claim for the Back Mountain crown as they meet the Redskins of Dallas Township in an all-important contest under the lights on the Tunkhannock field tonight . . . On the strength of their comparative records, the Tunks rate a heavy favorite as they sport wins over Moosic, Lehman and Kingston Township . . . However, they could do no better than hold Avoca down to three touchdowns, which is exactly the same margin of victory Avoca held over Dallas . . . Meanwhile the Redskins still hunting for their third win, are out to atone for the haphazard playing in their loss to Lehman last Wednesday . . . A win by Tunkhannock will insure them of the mythical Back Mountain championship, whereas a loss would complicate matters and place them in a possible tie with either Kingston or Dallas Townships.

Kingston Township plays host to Shickshinny tomorrow afternoon and the visitors reign as a two touchdown favorite over the Katies . . . Shickshinny boasts of a 20-0 victory over Dupont and a 33-12 massacre of Wilkes-Barre Township . . . The Kaytees have won only one game this season, an 18-0 victory over Lehman . . . The Lehman Scotties meet Moosic Saturday and are easy favorites to nail down their third triumph of the season . . . Moosic has lost by such lopsided scores as Wyoming 42-0, Tunkhannock 25-0, Avoca 23-0 and Jenkins Township 19-0.

Last weekend was disastrous for Back Mountain teams as West Pittston shellacked Kingston Township 32-0, Avoca took Tunkhannock 19-0 and Lehman won over Dallas Township 14-7.

The Green and Gold of Avoca sailed through Tunkhannock 19-0 in what was supposed to be one of its toughest contests this season . . . The two backs, Clifford and Nolan, who did so much gaining for Avoca when they played Dallas and Lehman, also led the parade against Tunkhannock . . . Avoca chalked up its sixth victory to remain undefeated, one of the few teams in the Valley with such a record.

West Pittston swarmed over Kingston Township to the tune of 32-0 for its fourth and most impressive victory in the current campaign . . . The renowned Katie aerial attack failed to click, completing only two out of eighteen passes and this spelled defeat for the Orange and Black . . . Scoring in every period, a powerful West Pittston backfield, minus the services of star back, Jack Kirby, tore the Kaytee line to shreds.

All conversations are now leading up to the traditional Thanksgiving Day clash between the Red and White of Dallas Township and the Orange and Black of Kingston Township . . . With only two more games before this important event, both teams are preparing now to gain a victory in the Turkey Day classic . . . To date Dallas seems favored scoring 67 points to its opponents 88, while Kingston Township has scored only 25 points to its opponents 93 . . . But the schedule favored Dallas in the earlier games, so that now the Redskins face Tunkhannock and Forty Fort on the two remaining Saturdays, whereas Kingston Township has already encountered both these teams, losing by close scores, 9-0 Forty Fort and 14-13 Tunkhannock . . . The showing Dallas Township makes against Forty Fort and Tunkhannock will go a long way toward determining the relative chances of each team . . . It is a rough choice and so as the odds-maker says "You pays your money and you takes your choice."

The week of Nov. 7 is "Education Week" Webster gives the meaning of education as "the systematic training of the moral and intellectual faculties." Both parents and teachers play an important part in the child's education, so visit your schools to know reasons for present educational practices, then plan with the teacher for your child's own welfare. Suitable programs are being planned for various groups at the high school.

The girls in charge of the group games did a good job in the choice of games and in keeping the group interested. Mrs. Bill Belles won the door prize, which was an electric clock.
