

Extension Association to Hold Annual Meeting Next Wednesday

Thirty-fourth annual meeting of Luzerne County Agricultural and Home Economics Association will be held Wednesday, at 1:30 p.m. in the Lazarus Store Auditorium, 3rd floor, South Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

The Extension Association is an educational organization affiliated with the Pennsylvania State College and its work consists of meetings, demonstrations and miscellaneous assistance to all farmers throughout the county, both in agriculture and home economics. All persons interested in agriculture or home economics are welcome to attend this meeting as there is no membership fee. All are cordially invited to participate in the activities of the association.

The work of the association is conducted by Mrs. Ruth S. Darbie, home economics representative, and J. D. Hutchison, county farm agent. At the annual meeting there will be election of officers, financial report, report of the activities for the current year and a few short talks. Present officers are: William Smith, Berwick, President; Mr. Smith is a prominent fruit grower.
