BEAUMONT

Happy 1949 to all! Plan on seeing the "New Year" in at the Beaumont Union Church where the evening services will be preceded by a "Fellowship Supper" at seven o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend these "Watch Night" Services.

Floyd Jackson who is employed at a Philadelphia hospital spent Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Ada Jackson.

The William Downs family and the Victor LaBrunns family spent Christmas with the Charles Goodwins.

Mr. U. Charles Weeks of the School Lunch Division of the Dept. of Public Instruction inspected the school cafeteria and checked all accounts recently.

This past week William A. Austin, supervising principal, received a letter stating "congratulations on your most excellent school lunch program."

The missionary societies of the Free Methodist Church and the Union Church are to be congratulated for doing local missionary work—spreading Christmas cheer to shut-ins and the needy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dress are spending the Christmas holidays with their son, Ned, at Canton, Ill.

The high school basketball team will play Meshoppen High here Monday night, January 3 at eight. Please support your team! Refreshments will be sold.

The Paul Nultons had Mrs. Nulton's parents, the Gibson's of Forty-Fort, and George Blossom of Beaumont as Christmas dinner guests. Incidentally the new funeral parlors at Nulton's are an addition of which the town can be proud.

The Christmas vacation at school started December 23 and terminates January 3.

The town basketball team, the Beaumont Barons, beat Springville here last Thursday by a score 33-32. Springville was last year's champions, so you see we made a good beginning after cleaning up Meshoppen the week before by 29-28 too.

The Lend-A-Hand Club had its Christmas party at the I.O.O.F. Hall last Thursday at which time gifts were exchanged.

If you want to taste venison, call on the following, who shot their deer. "Tippy" Dymond, Alfred Dymond, Warren Dymond, Oscar Corby, Nile Clark, Clifford Denmon, Lloyd Payne, William Smith, Frances Mulnix, and "Stub" Crispell, Jr.

Dick Kresge of our fourth grade sang at the Dallas Jr. Women's Club's last meeting.

Mr. Jacob Andrews was given a surprise birthday party at his home last Wednesday night.

The sum for the Salvation Army Drive was added to, this past week, by Mrs. Charles Smith who submitted $9.50 for her section of the town and by Mrs. Raymond Denmon who submitted $5.50 for her section. Thanks to those who wish to help the less fortunate.

The Job Dietz's were recent visitors at Wyalusing where they visited the Claude Dietz family.

Trucksville PTA Meets

Rev. Bernard Grogan spoke on "Why Christmas" at the meeting of Trucksville PTA last Monday evening.

Following a short business meeting at which adult recreation classes were discussed, a musical program was presented by students of Miss Margaret Gordon; Patsy Shaver, Nancy Jones, Patsy Carey, Ruth Ellen Hammond, Marian Gobel, Martha Jackson, and Mary Tryon. Carol singing was led by William Burnaford.

A farmer dance in the youth Center closed the evening.
