Still at Peak Construction

Winter Fails to Retard New Building

Among the many new homes and business places under construction in the Back Mountain area is Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Edwards Pennsylvania form house located high on the former Moss Farm northeast of Huntsville. The house is of field stone and frame construction. Robert Eyerman is the architect and Curtis-Pethic Company is the builder.

Ralph Downing, who has already completed two homes for resale on Midland Drive, has two more under construction there.

Another large concrete block and frame home is being built by the representative of Corn Products Company at the end of Gordon street in Goss Manor.

Arthur Steinhauer of James Street, Kingston, is building a fine new home on the former Washburn plot in West Dallas.

On Ferguson Avenue in Shavertown, Reynold Watkins is erecting a large new house.

Along Demunds road in Dallas Township, Harry Martin is building an all stone house for his son, Harry Jr., and Teddy Wilson is building another stone front home for his daughter, Mrs. Marilyn Morris.

F. Gordon Mathers is adding another unit to his business block in Trucksville which already houses Earl's Drug Store, Trucksville Post Office and DeRemer's Radio Clinic. The new two-story unit will be of concrete block and frame construction, with large show room on the first floor and two apartments on the second. It will be twenty-four by fifty feet.

a complete stock of sporting goods. When completed DeRemer's Radio Clinic will occupy the first floor in order to better take care of its expanding business. Hub Pesavento will occupy the show room vacated by Radio Clinic. In addition to his present lines he will handle

NOW you can have the service of a MODERN PLANING MILL and WOODWORKING SHOP

To build those special cabinets - cupboards - kitchen counters - windows - doors and trim that every home needs . . . .

Back Mountain Lumber and Coal Company has created in Shavertown a woodworking plant that is second to none, complete in every detail and the first of its kind ever established in the Back Mountain Area.

Thousands of dollars have been expended on the finest new power machines—moulders, cut off saws, joiners, planers, band saws, rip saws, sanders, morticers, drill presses, tenoners and radial saws.

Every carpenter and contractor will know what such equipment means in the production of high quality workmanship—quickly and at low cost.

To the home owner and prospective homeowner this means "If it is made of wood, we can make it". Make it right and save you money.

This up-to-the-minute plant is under the direction of William Martin, a veteran woodworking man who has had years of experience in the finest plants and who is ready to help you with any of your building problems.

We invite contractors, carpenters, home owners and prospective home owners to inspect the plant and equipment and to talk over any woodworking problems they may have.
