C. L. Roushey, 51, Mourned by Many

Funeral Will Be Held Saturday Afternoon

The funeral of C. L. "Jack" Roushey, 51, who died Wednesday morning at 1 at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital where he had been admitted on Saturday, will be held this Saturday afternoon from Harold Snowdon Funeral Home, Wilkes-Barre, with services in charge of Rev. Robert Webster of Trucksville Methodist Church and Mrs. Frank Mathers, pastor of Trucksville Free Methodist Church.

Born in Trucksville on June 4, 1897, Mr. Roushey was the son of William C. and Rettie Roushey, and had lived in that community all of his life. He was born in the house where he lived until the time of his death. As a youth he was employed by Luzerne County Gas & Electric Corp., but shortly before World War I, he established the service station and garage on the Main Highway in Trucksville. Except for the period when he was an instructor in automobile mechanics in the Army during World War I, he had conducted it ever since.

His garage was a gathering place for the old timers of the community who enjoyed his dry philosophy and who knew that he could fix any type of mechanical gadget. A tall man, he was 6 feet 4 inches in his stocking feet, he discarded Clarence in favor of "Jack" when he was a lad. He was never too busy to help somebody else and had a host of friends, among them members of the State Police who made his garage a stopping place. Aside from mechanics his great love was cats and he had a way about him that attracted them to him. His home was never without one or more.

He was never strong following a goitre operation in 1935 which seriously damaged his heart, but he never complained and few of his intimate friends knew of his frailty. He had not been in good health for several weeks, but continued about his duties working in his garage until 6 o'clock Friday night. The following day he was admitted to the hospital where his condition grew steadily worse.

On Tuesday he called his wife to his bedside, saying "I know it's all up." He wasn't concerned about himself, but in the same spirit that he had faced life he was concerned about her. He then asked that his following friends help her at the funeral and named as pall bearers: Harry Reinhart and Elwood Lewis of the State Police, Felix Shapiro, Elmer Major, Sherman Harter, and Harry Long.

As flower carriers he asked for Al Hughes of Stull Brothers; Jerry Wagner of Francoini Auto Parts; J. Traver Noble, insurance man; Charles Gay of Gay Murray Co.,

Fred Palme, Atlantic Refining Co., and Clarence "Dodger" Hodgen of Trucksville.

He leaves his wife, the former Elle Atherholt; his father, William C. Roushey, Shavertown; two sisters, Mrs. Lydia Hartman, Hunlock Creek and Louise M. Roushey, Fall River, Mass., and a brother Howard Cannon, Pa.

Interment will be in Memorial Shrine.
