

Trappers Capture 297 Foxes And 670 Weasels In County

Luzerne County residents who trapped and hunted predators during January received $1,568.00 from the Game Fund according to Divisional Headquarters for the nine northeastern counties located at Forty-Fort.

Seven hundred sixty weasels, one hundred sixty-eight Gray Fox, twenty-nine Red Fox, and five Great Horned Owls were probed by the successful hunters and trappers.

This amount is part of the $34,129 paid to claimants during January, in the entire state. Since June 1st 1948 a total of $115,772 has been paid out of the Fund for Claims on 12,480 weasels, 11,629 gray foxes, 12,866 red foxes, 20 Goshawks and 1,319 Great Horned Owls. $3,746.00 of this amount has been returned to successful trappers and hunters of Luzerne County.

Information regarding bounty claims can be secured from any District Game Protector, Alderman, Justice of the Peace or Magistrate. Game Commission officials point out that the fur crop of Pennsylvania amounts to nearly a million dollars, a highly prized natural resource.

Joint Grange Meeting

Pamona Grange No. 44 of Upper Luzerne County will meet with Mt. Grange 567 at Carverton March 19. State Master Sharp Fullerton will be present.

Dinner will be served at noon. The afternoon meeting is open to the public. Every one welcome.

Finds Notes In Post

(Contributed) The Dallas Post found an additional way to be of service to the community this week when the newly appointed secretary of a local organization came in to look up a news item in the files. He had lost his notes to the previous meeting of his group and had to depend on a Dallas Post article to get the facts for his minutes.

Gene Strauss copped scoring honors with 215 points and a 18 points-a-game average followed by Danny Gulitus with 170 and a 14 points-a-game average. Filling out the first five, Richards had 155, McKeown and Nuss 152 apiece. Note the wide separation between the top positions—45 points between first and second, 15 points between second and third—and then the meager three point difference between third, fourth and fifth.

Kingston Township takes the team honors as they placed three men in the first ten (Richards, Morgan and Hons) and one (Handley) in the next group. Harter is next with two men (McKeown and Jones) in the top ten and one (Crawford) in the next. Fairview and Laketon are tied with two men each in the top squad (Strauss and Frankenfield; Gulitus and Zosh). Nuss, in a tie for fourth place is the only Lehman representative on the list. Neither Dallas Borough nor Dallas Township placed in the first ten, but each had three men in the

BACK MOUNTAIN LEAGUE

Back Mountain League season ended Friday with a decided upset by the Blue and Gold of Laketon as it nudged Harter 47-46. . . The Harter defeat coupled with Dallas Borough's thumping 60-35 victory over Dallas Township places these two teams in a third place tie. . . Kingston Township took Lehman, as expected, 54-44 to gain undisputed second place honors. . . Fairview took the flag with a .917 average and will represent the League in the PIAA playoffs.

The girls' division ended in a first place tie as Dallas Township won over Dallas Borough 22-19 and Kingston Township took over Lehman. . . The two Dallas teams and Kingston Township were formerly in a three way tie for first place. . . The Katies and Redskins met Wednesday night at the Wyoming gym to determine the championship.

With this season over, the coaches are looking forward towards next year's season. . . As usual, graduation takes its yearly toll with Dallas Borough and Kingston Township hit hardest. . . Kingston Township loses Hons, Handley, Morgan, McGarry and Oney from its varsity squad. . . Dallas Borough loses its entire starting lineup as Hazletine, Shaffer, Monka, Harris and Price leave. . . Fairview and Laketon lose their key players when Strauss and Gulitus graduate. All in all, the changes tend to even up the teams as the majority of them will have to depend on less experienced players next year.

The girls' teams will remain even and unpredictable for the most part, as only Dallas Borough comes out unscathed having its entire undergraduate squad of Bruns, Cooper, Bowman, Patsy, Broken-shire and Barretini return. . . Dallas Township will miss such stalwarts as Prudhoe, Wilson and Calhoun from their lineup.

Playing his last high school game, Danny Gulitus with 21 points led Laketon to its surprising upset victory over Harter 47-46. . . Laketon led at the half 30-28 in a free scoring affair; after the half both teams settled down and played even ball. . . Both were off at the foul line; Laketon made only five out of fifteen and Harter four out of thirteen. . . Zosh had 12 points to help Laketon as Jones and Crawford had 30 points between them for Harter.

Dallas Borough tromped Dallas Township 60-35. . . Arnold Price, tricky Borough center, had 17 points to lead the field and give him a total of 37 points in the last three games. . . Each Borough varsity player hit for over five points. . . Larry Brace and Harry Belles held the brunt of the Dallas Township attack as they collected 26 points between them.

Kingston Township with Richards, Morgan and Hons hitting for double figures for 42 points rode over Lehman 54-44. . . Mont with 15 Nuss with 11 kept Lehman's hopes acoing but the Scotties were no match for the Katies high powered attack.

CHURCH LEAGUE
The battle for the Church League playoff trophy starts in earnest Saturday night at the Kingston Township gymnasium as the top six teams in the league square off. . . The first game pits the regular season champ, St. Paul's Lutheran, against the third place St. Therese's in what promises to be another high scoring replica of their first encounter. . . St. Paul's will face one of its toughest opponents as the "Saints" are out to make up for the 56-46 defeat handed them three weeks ago.

The second game matched a strong Dallas Methodist "A" squad against East Dallas. . . Dallas "A" led the league during most of the season, suffering its only defeat at the hands of the rampaging Kunkle aggregation, and will be eager to take this one to keep its hat in the ring. . . East Dallas, a hot and cold team, will have to be on its toes to capture this game.

The final game will be the one to watch as two distinctly different teams face each other. . . Huntsville Christian, playing with a smooth, slow, deliberate attack, will meet Kunkle Methodist, whose alert audacity and fast break made it one of the most feared teams in the league. . . The visitor in this game will represent the dark horse in the race for the trophy. . . Both teams are strong and steadily improving. . . After dropping the first four games, Huntsville hit pay-dirt and turned in six straight victories, while Kunkle, on the other hand, stacks up as the highest scoring team in the league.

The winners of these three games will meet Monday in the second stage of the playoffs probably at the Dallas Township gym. . . The final playoff will take place on Saturday, March 12.

In the playoffs for the tie positions Saturday at Dallas Township, Shavertown Lutheran nailed down the pennant as they squ-e-e-zed by Dallas "A" 40-39. . . Ahead by fourteen points in the last quarter, Shavertown folded as Dallas got hot and made a valiant bid but "Time" was the deciding factor. . . Led by Charlie Brobst, who garnered 17 points to take the high scoring honors for the game, Dallas came close but the Shavertown defense tightened and saved the game. . . Dallas missed fifteen charity tosses, a fact which lost them the game. . . Art Kitchen was tops for Shavertown with 14 points.

In what was predicted to be a close game, Kunkle literally ran away with Dallas "B" 56-36. . . The game started out close but Kunkle soon warmed up and sailed away. . . The fast break, featuring Bud Mitchell and Jiggs Elston, accounted for 32 points and the accuracy of Jim Knecht added 14 more. . . Ralph Templin hit for 20 of Dallas "B's" total followed by Bob Roberts with 8. . . This defeat eliminated Dallas "B" from the playoffs.

The tie for fourth place was decided when in another breath-taker, Huntsville Christian outlasted East Dallas 32-31. . . It was basket for basket the entire game with slow steady play up to the final minutes when each team endeavored to get the lead. . . Huntsville put on a beautiful freeze in the closing minutes to prevent East Dallas from scoring the necessary points. . . Bob Price was high with 15 for Huntsville and Harry Martin tops with 11 for East Dallas. . . Bob Grose with 11 for Huntsville and Tex Wilson with 9 for East Dallas were next in line.

ory of the stage setting and the actors thereon, something which I doubt because after all he had troubles of his own, I should like to set him straight on this one point.

The lady of the house does not ordinarily resemble the Terrible Turk in person, only on those rare occasions when she is in the midst of having a home permanent wave with the neutralizer stage still a carefully timed half hour away. All in all, considering the static, getting the wave dunked in the neutralizer on time or at all was something of a feat.

Maybe this chain of events was not due to the March lion at all, but to the misguided optimism which led us to put the snow-shovel down in the basement under the happy impression that spring had come. Snow-shovels, we now feel, should be left handy in the mud-room until after the final onion-snow on the fifth of April.
