Miss Shirley M. Swan Becomes Bride At Lovely June Wedding

The marriage of Miss Shirley M. Swan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Swan of Ridge street, Shavertown, and Elwood C. Ide, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Ide, Mill Street, Dallas, took place Saturday, June 18th at 2:30 o'clock in Shavertown Methodist Church. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Howard Harrison.

Robert Coons was soloist accompanied by John Blackwell, a brother-in-law of the bridegroom. The attendants were Mrs. James Keiper, sister of the bride, matron of honor, Mrs. William Newton of Pottsville a classmate of the bride, bridesmaid, Junior bridesmaids were Rosalind Keiper, niece of the bride and Janice Ide, sister of the bridegroom.

Best man was Lawrence Ide, brother of the groom, and ushers were James Keiper, brother-in-law of the bride, Carlton Rogers, and Marcus Ide, Jr., brother of the bridegroom.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white bridal satin with a double bertha collar edged with saw-toothed scallops, a fitted bodice and full skirt train. Her fingertip veil fell from a seed pearl tiara. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses.

The matron of honor wore a gown of waltz blue taffeta similar to that of the bride with a double bertha collar edged with saw-toothed scallops, short sleeves and matching gauntlets. She wore a

Ruth Cornell And Samuel Balick Married In Maple Grove Church

At a very pretty wedding Miss Ruth Cornell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cornell of Meeker became the bride of Samuel Balick, son of Mrs. Susan Balick of Nesquehoning, Sunday in the Maple Grove Methodist Church. Professor Henry Kiessel performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with white carnations, peonies, and palms. Miss Janet Cornell, sister of the bride, played the wedding march and Alice Gordon sang "I Love Thee," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Attendants were Miss Dorothy Cornell, sister of the bride, of State College and Samuel Devan of Nesquehoning. Ushers were Harold and Ralph Cornell, brothers of the bride.

The bride was attractive in white satin gown fashioned with tight bodice, full skirt en train, high neckline with lace yoke and long tight sleeves, pointed at wrist. Her full-length veil fell from wreath of tiny feathers and she carried a bouquet of white roses and orchids.

Miss Cornell chose aqua gown, similar to the bride's and matching bonnet and mitts. She carried yellow roses.

Mrs. Cornell, mother of the bride, selected black and vari-colored print and pink roses and Mrs. Balick, mother of the bride-groom, black and white and red roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride and the couple left for the Poconos, and New York City.

Mrs. Balick is a graduate of Lehman High School and Penn State College. For the past three years she has been teacher of Mathematics at Cherry Township High School. Mr. Balick has been with the State Troopers for the past seven years. During the war he served with the U. S. Navy. The couple will reside in Du-shore.
