Norma VanTuyle, Bride Of James C. Hutchison

Miss Norma Lucille VanTuyle, daughter of Mrs. Charles VanTuyle and the late Charles S. VanTuyle Harding, became the bride of James Crisman Hutchison, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hutchison of Trucks-ville in Wyoming Methodist Church on Saturday afternoon at 3.

Rev. Robert Wood of Carverton performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms and white flowers. Mrs. Allan Albrecht played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Harold Seiple.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Leon VanTuyle, wore a gown of white marquisette with portrait neckline, fitted bodice, and long pointed sleeves. The wide bertha collar and bouffant skirt entrain were trimmed with self cording and ruching. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a sweetheart halo of pleated illusion trimmed with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds, white carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. William Deitrich of Reading, matron of honor, wore a gown of white dotted ninon over pink taffeta with a matching sash tied in a huge back bow. She wore a large horsehair picture hat trimmed with pink taffeta, and matching gauntlets. Her bouquet was of yellow rosebuds, pink carnations and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Grace Ambler of Abington, Miss Jane Dymond, of West Pittston and Miss Pearl Stevenson of Chester, were attired in matching gowns of white dotted ninon over aqua. They wore horsehair hats trimmed with aqua and matching gauntlets. They carried pink rosebuds, yellow carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Noreen VanTuyle, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. She wore a matching gown of white ninon over aqua, with a matching hat and gauntlets. She carried pink rosebuds and yellow carnations.

William S. Davis of Huntington, classmate of the bridegroom at Jefferson Medical College, was best man. Ushers were George Dymond of Orange, cousin of the bride; Ronal Crisman of Kenmore and John Coleman of West Pittston, cousins of the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride selected a toast lace trimmed dress with eggshell accessories and a corsage of orchids. The mother of the bridegroom chose a pink brocaded chiffon dress with white accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors and the couple left for Canada.

The bride was graduated from Pennsylvania State College and is teaching in Abington, Pa. Mr. Hutchison is a graduate of Pennsylvania State College and is attending Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. They will reside in Abington.

Showers for the bride were given at the homes of Mrs. Edna Albrecht, Mrs. Jack James, Miss Mary Grace Ambler, Miss Emily Taggart, Miss Marion Mathers, Miss Jane Dymond, Mrs. John Doane. The bride also was entertained by the Abington Presbyterian Church Choir.
