Meeker Mother Taken By Death

Mrs. Marie Rebennack Was Active in Grange

The funeral of Mrs. Marie Rebennack, 75, mother of John and Albert Rebennack, was held Tuesday from the home in Meeker with many friends and neighbors attending. Rev. David Menges officiated. Bearers were: grandchildren, Robert, Allen and Theodore Rebennack, and nephews, Robert and Lavere Disque.

Interment was in Hanover Green Cemetery.

Mrs. Rebennack had lived in Meeker for nearly thirty years. She was the widow of the late Jacob Rebennack. In frail health for some time, she was stricken with a heart attack last Tuesday. Her condition became critical with death occurring several days later.

Mrs. Rebennack, was the former Marie Disque, Wilkes-Barre. She was a great asset to the community in which she lived. An energetic and enthusiastic worker, she was greatly interested in Lehman Grange and was an officer at one time. Despite poor health, she forgot self in promoting the interests of the organizations to which she belonged. She was also a member of the W.S.C.S. and Ladies Bible Class of Meeker Methodist Church.

She was intensely interested in her home and her flowers and spent much time in growing lovely blooms of every sort. A fine neighbor and loyal friend, she was held in high esteem by all.

She is survived by two sons, Albert, Kingston and John, Meeker. Also a by brother, Louis Disque, Wilkes-Barre, and six grandchildren.
