BI-COUNTY LEAGUE SCORES

Sunday, August 7

Noxen 9, Carverton 3; Vernon 11, Falls 2; East Dallas 8, Orange 5; Dallas 5, Beaumont 1; Jackson 6, Harding 4; Shavertown-Osterhout — No Game.

As the season nears its close each succeeding week springs surprises just as a magician plucks rabbits from a hat. Harding, which made headlines with last week's defeat of Noxen, comes in the spotlight again. However, this time the tables have turned and Jackson is the team to draw the plaudits. In a surprising reversal of form, the eighth place Jackson crew humbled the second place Harding outfit 6-4. The rejuvenated Dallas squad also shares the limelight for its easy 5-1 defeat of Beaumont. This sudden surge after a very mediocre start has put the Dallas team hot on the heels of the front runners and with Vernon and Jackson also pushing hard the top teams might well look to their laurels. In all the dust and hubbub of a tight race only Noxen, secure and serene on the top of the heap, can remain aloof from the commotion.

Three top games are scheduled for Sunday, which by the way is just the first round in eliminating the postponed games before the playoffs begin. Dallas and Jackson clash in what may be the best game of the day. Both teams need this game badly, but as only one can gain the victory this looks like a hammer-n-tongs battle. The same applies to the Shavertown-Beaumont struggle. A loss by either team might well drop it out of the first four and possibly as low as sixth depending on the outcome of the other games. The Harding-Vernon contest looms as the dark horse. Following last week's loss to Jackson, Harding isn't as firmly entrenched in second place as it would like to be and would appreciate Vernon's scalp. But then, of course, Vernon might have something to say on that. In the remaining games it looks like Noxen over Falls, East Dallas over Osterhout and Orange over Carverton.

Jackson Astounds Harding

With Joe Levi showing the way with a neat six-hit pitching chore, Jackson broke a 4-4 tie with one run in the seventh and another for insurance in the eighth to down Harding 6-4. A Levi connected for the game's only extra-base hit, a double, however Chet Rusloski led Jackson's eight-hit attack on the two Harding pitchers with a pair of singles. Catcher J. Lauritis was the only Harding batter consistently to solve Levi's slants as he also got a brace of singles. Rosencrantz, who relieved Byehola in the seventh, was the losing pitcher.

Dallas Wins Fourth

Beaumont fell victim to Dallas' surge towards the top. Dallas registered its fourth straight triumph with an easy 5-1 victory. The score was 1-1 in the sixth, when Dallas let loose for three runs and added another in the seventh for good measure. H. Grose, Dallas pitcher, then retired 12 straight batters with only one break, Kennedy's single. Dallas scored first on H. Grose's single and "Old Man" Lefty Danko's triple. Wetzel scored Beaumont's lone tally after he singled in the fifth. Dallas' margin of victory came with a single by H. Grose and a trio of doubles by H. Brobst, C. Brobst and Vanderbrouch. Jimmy Knecht slammed out a double to score G. Roberts who had previously walked. H. Grose had four strikeouts and gave up two walks and six hits. Lefty Lou Wetzel fell victim to Dallas' ten-hit attack while giving up four walks and collecting six strikeouts.

Doris Kemmerer's Vacation
Is Anything But Pleasant

Doris Kemmerer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kemmerer, Pioneer avenue, Shavertown, is a patient in General Hospital where she underwent an ear operation Tuesday morning.

Employed by Thompson Derr Insurance Company in Wilkes-Barre, Doris began her vacation three weeks ago. Shortly afterward she was thrown from a horse while riding and suffered bruises. Several days later she went swimming at Evans Falls with a group of friends and was accidentally hit in the ear with a rock.

After much treatment at home and in great pain from the injury, Dr. Wilson Marsden was called and ordered an immediate operation. She is now making a satisfactory recovery.
