Sherman Warden Laid At Rest

Formerly Owned Store At Kunkle

The funeral of Sherman Warden, 79, Shavertown, was held from the late home on Wednesday morning. In ill health for many years, Mr. Warden was sitting on his porch Saturday morning when he was stricken with a heart attack. He was assisted into the living room by members of his family, but died before a doctor arrived.
Services were in charge of Rev. Howard Harrison and Rev. Frederick Mook. Bearers were Nelson Whipp, Paul Gallagher, Warden Kunkle, James Landon, George Bronson and Sherman Kunkle.
Interment was in Warden Cemetery, donated many years ago by his grandfather.
A member of one of the pioneer families of the Back Mountain area, Mr. Warden was born in Kunkle the son of Spencer and Jane Ayers Warden. He was a graduate of Wyoming Seminary, class of 1891. He married Mari-etta Kunkle October 9, 1895, thus uniting two of the oldest families in this sector.

For many years Mr. Warden conducted a general store at Kunkle. He was postmaster for 20 years, and also served as school director of Dallas Township. He enjoyed hunting and fishing.

Twenty-seven years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Warden moved to Shavertown where they erected a home on Main road.

Surviving are his wife, daughters, Mrs. George Bronson, Sweet Valley; Elizabeth and Kay, at home; foster son, Sherman Kunkle, Sweet Valley and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Kunkle, Dallas.

Interesting Exhibits Listed For Lake Show

Niches, which were introduced at the Alderson Methodist Flower Show last year, will continue to hold their popularity in this year's exhibit at Lake Township High School next Thursday afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Howard Conrad has stated that she will fill three small and two of the larger niches with flower displays.

There will be available twelve niches, nine inches wide, nine high and six inches deep. There will also be ten larger niches 24 x 24 x 24" which Mrs. George Carey, Mrs. Harry Allen Sr., Mrs. Witters, Mrs. Andrew Hourigan, Mrs. Daugherty and Mrs. Al Armitage have expressed a desire to fill with bouquets.

The show will be open to the public at 3 p. m.

To the long list of hobbies garnered by Frank Jackson, Mrs. Conrad will display six birdhouses and Mrs. Kunkle has fifty china pitchers which have never been exhibited before.

With a number of legal protests and postponed games undecided, the league presents a pattern somewhat like a patchwork quilt. Noxen still holds undisputed sway over first place although its foundation was weakened somewhat by Falls' unexpected 7-2 triumph Sunday.

Vernon, by virtue of its resounding 11-3 victory over Harding, has climbed into fourth place over the vanquished Beaumont squad. Harding and Shavertown continue two-three and appear set. However, Harding, which is virtually assured of the number two spot, is still a question mark. To finish out the season with Dallas this Sunday, Harding may use its regular team, but to participate in the playoffs, Harding must drop seven ineligible players which it has been using all season. How this paradox will be solved is anybody's guess, but Harding must come to a decision before next week.

Although the playoffs have been semi-officially settled at four teams, it has not been definitely decided whether it will be the top four teams in the league or the top two teams in each division. Divisions are split up as follows (teams are listed in their order in league standings): In the first section are Noxen, Vernon, Beaumont, Jackson, Orange and Osterhout. In the second section are Harding, Shavertown, Dallas, East Dallas, Carverton and Falls. It is extremely likely that the top four teams will be the same as the divisional leaders, but, and here is the skunk in the woodpile, if Harding drops out the number two team in its division may well be the fifth or sixth place team in the league standings. And as the league rules at the start of the season definitely state—the top teams in each section are the ones to engage in the playoffs, you can easily see what a muddle the final standings will present.

Jackson Sinks Dallas
The games coming up this Sunday will clear up most of the present muddled standings. With all the contests, excepting the Carverton-Falls tilt, regulation games which have been either protested or postponed, this week will go a long way toward deciding the playoff contenders. Four of the games will be really top flight with one team as likely to win as the other. These games include the Noxen-Vernon, Orange-Beaumont, Dallas-Harding, and the Jackson-East Dallas contests.

Vernon Upsets Harding
Jackson proved to be just a little bit too much for Dallas in both hitting and pitching and so earned a narrow 6-4 victory. Although out-hitting Dallas 10-3, Jackson could not capitalize on its extra power and so the game was nip and tuck right down to the last inning. Stellar fielding prevailed on both sides as Ide, Jackson left fielder, pulled down two long Dallas drives ticketed for extra bases and then Charlie Brobst, right-fielder, evened the score for Dallas as he made a great catch robbing Ide of at least a triple. H. Grose was the losing pitcher giving up five walks to Levi's two, and fanning five to Levi's eight. Joe Levi held Dallas in check with only three hits with Lefty Danko collect two of them and Vanderbrouck getting the third. Fedor had two hits, one a home run, to stand out for Jackson. Urlick also had two hits, a pair of singles, as did Niezgoda and Bombick. Rusloski had a double.

Shavertown Trips Beaumont

In a tight pitching duel that lasted the full nine innings Ralph Anthony bested Lefty Wetzel to give Shavertown a 5-3 victory. Although each team could get only five hits, Shavertown bunched its to good advantage to take the ballgame. Larry Newhart's double, the game's only extra-base hit, was the telling blow in the Shavertown attack. Wetzel garnered 12 strikeouts to Anthony's five, but to no avail as Anthony showed more control and bore down in the pinches as he walked only two compared to four for Wetzel. Patton was tops for Beaumont with two hits while Newhart was the big gun for Shavertown as he also collected two hits. Goodwin, Wetzel and Kennedy filled out the Beaumont hitting and Cairns, B. Metzger and Anthony each had a hit apiece for Shavertown.
