BEAUMONT

Was it the heat, the humidity, or "dog days" that kept the local grapevine so busy on this past week's events? For the baseball league had a torrid meeting at the high school Thursday night to iron out some past wrinkles and insure further smoothness.

The stork brought a girl to the James Sicklers at the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Friday, August 12 and a boy to the Warren Johnsons at the General Hospital Saturday August 13.

Then too the Derbys had a cellar fire at their home in Plattsburg. Add to that—Bill Belles side-swiped a car and careened over the bank on Route 309 only to land in the General Hospital to determine the extent of his injuries. Sorry to add that Eugene Hilbert and Mrs. Abe Pellam are confined to their homes and that Mrs. Ned Dress and family left Beaumont for another year to return to their Canton, Ill. home via Kentucky where Ned is employed.

Truly the "lights being out" Thursday night lent a realistic atmosphere to the Lend-A-Hand Club Hobo Party where lanterns helped to conduct the business meeting when further plans concerning the reading by Mrs. Elizabeth Conrad on September 29 were discussed.

Mrs. Anne Richards moved from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Lutes, to the Sam Richards house on Lake Hill.

Mrs. Mae Brinker of Connecticut visited her family, the Taylors last week.
