Rev. and Mrs. James J. Hilbert, formerly of Harvey's Lake, and Miss Lois Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen J. Ward of Harvey's Lake recently returned from a ten day automobile tour that was fourteen hundred miles long. Points of interest visited were Watkins Glen, Niagara Falls, Thousand Islands, Canada, Howes Caverns, West Point, and the Statue of Liberty in New York.

A stop over the weekend was made at Waterbury, Conn. where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Evans, friends of the Hilberts who formerly lived in Scranton. A brief stop in Dover, N. J. was made and finally a one day stop at Reading, Pa. to visit relatives of the Hilberts.

In their travels the Hudson river was crossed at four different places—1st The Rip VanWinkle Bridge at Catskill, 2nd the Mid-Hudson bridge at Poughkeepsie, 3rd the Bear Mountain Bridge below West Point, and 4th the George Washington Bridge in Upper New York.

In driving through the summer resorts of the Catskill Mountains, a stop at Durham was made for a refreshing swim in a small pool. Here they were informed of the poor summer the New York State resorts were experiencing. One hotel with accommodations for 500 guests, at no time during the summer had more than 85.

Rev. and Mrs. Hilbert spent the night as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ward before returning to their home.
