Margaret Pavlick Becomes Bride Of Robert F. Moyer

On Saturday morning, October 15, at nine o'clock Miss Margaret Pavlick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pavlick of Ceastown, became the bride of Robert F. Moyer, son of Frank Moyer and the late Mrs. Moyer of Pike's Creek, at a nuptial Mass in Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Lake Silkworth.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Martin Yatsko of Hazleton, a great-uncle of the bride. The soloist and organist was Mrs. Sophia Skok. The altars were decorated with white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a sheer white marquisette gown with a deep lace yoke, long pointed sleeves, lace peplum, and full train. The fingertip veil edged in lace fell from a tiara of seed pearls. The bridal bouquet was of white roses.

Miss Maryann Pavlick, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore pink sheer gown with deep yoke and carried chrysanthemums. Her matching headdress of sweetheart design ended in a bow at the back.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Monica Pavlick, sister of the bride; Bernadine Yudichak, and Margaret Sponarow, were attired in pink, blue and aqua similarly made and carried chrysanthemums in harmonizing colors.

The flower girl, Elizabeth Kristofek, cousin of the bride, wore rose taffeta and carried a nosegay. The ringbearer, Joseph Hardisky, also a cousin of the bride, was attired in a tuxedo.

Best man was Amos Reekes. Ushers were Andrew Sorber, Luther Hummel, and Thomas Stash. The mother of the bride wore black crepe dress with black accessories and corsage of red roses.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the bride's home, followed by a reception in the evening.

The bride is a graduate of Harter High School, West Nanticoke, and the groom of Lehman Township High School. Mr. Moyer is employed at the Bloomsburg Mills, Dallas.

Following a wedding trip to New York City, the couple will reside temporarily with the bride's parents.

Miss Doris Shupp Becomes Bride of Sharps Cyphers

Miss Doris Shupp, daughter of Fred Shupp of West Wyoming, became the bride of Sharps Cyphers, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cyphers, Carverton, on October 14 in the Carverton Methodist Church parsonage. Rev. Robert Wood performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a forest green, street length gown with brown hat and accessories. Her corsage was of white roses. Matron of honor was Mrs. Robert Cyphers who chose dress of forest green with black hat and accessories and corsage of white roses.

Best man was Robert Cyphers, brother of the bridegroom. Following the ceremony a supper for the bridal party was held at Turner's Restaurant, after which a luncheon for the immediate families was held later at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cyphers. The couple left for a honeymoon to East Orange, N.J. They will reside at Carverton.

Mrs. Cyphers is a graduate of Dallas Township High School and was employed at the Emkay Corporation in Wyoming. The bridegroom was graduated from Kingston Township and is employed at the Industrial Electric Company in Luzerne.
