October Birthday Party Draws Large Crowd At Pikes Creek

Seventy-four persons were present at the Halloween party held at the Pike's Creek Community Hall Saturday evening, honoring those with October birthdays. Many added to the enjoyment of the evening by coming in costume.

Following a Grand March for children up to twelve years of age, the judges made these awards: prettiest, Alice Mae Britt; funniest, Cora Martin; most original, Connie Fall. Prizes were awarded to the older group as follows: prettiest, Evadne Ruggles; funniest, Mrs. Otis Rood; and most original, Alex Ballantine. David Martin won the door prize, an appropriately decorated home-made cake.

As the crowd assembled and later in the program music was provided by an orchestra, the Oahu Hawaiians. This family group, the children of Amos Redmond, music teacher of Hunlock Creek, won trophy and music award ribbons and honorable mention at the International Guitar League and National Music Festival. Instruments played by the children were Hawaiian guitar, Spanish guitar, brass violin, and ukulele.

Other numbers on the program were songs by Janet Cornell and Barbara Williams, "Quit Dat Ticklin' Me," and "Mighty Lak a Rose"; readings by Mrs. Ernest Keller of Shavertown, and an exhibition of twirling by Janet Cornell, a member of the Lehman High School Band.

Pumpkin pie, sweet cider, and coffee were served to John Graham, Dora Davenport, Elmer Wolfe, Lee Landmesser, Harold R. LaBar, Barbara Williams, Alice Mae Britt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams, Mr. and Mrs. William J. LaBar, Mrs. Mae Boston, Jessie Shupp, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ruggles, Ann Marie Ruggles, Mr. and Mrs. T. Fredericks Celebrate Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Frederick of Fernbrook celebrated their thirty-third wedding anniversary on Tuesday, October 25.

The Fredericks were married at Grace Episcopal Church, Kingston. They have one son, William. Both Bill and his dad are employed by Bell Telephone Company in Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Frederick has been there for thirty-nine years, in fact, that's where he met Mrs. Frederick, also an employee then.

Mrs. Frederick is new president of the Prince of Peace Auxiliary.

Ninety Attend Men's Dinner

Dr. Hood Speaker Tuesday at Orange

Doubt that agricultural problems, either now or in the future, can be solved for farmers by subsidy was expressed by Dr. Kenneth Hood, extension agricultural economist of Pennsylvania State College, in an address before ninety men attending the Three Point Dinner for men of Orange, Mt. Zion and Carverton Methodist Churches at Orange Community Hall on Tuesday.

Dr. Hood was introduced by James D. Hutchison, county farm agent, Arthur Gay was toastmaster, Arthur Webb, president of the Men's Class of Orange Church introduced the class officers, L. Stanley Jones was song leader. The dinner was served by women of Orange W.S.C.S. with the dining room in charge of Mrs. Mary Emmanuel and the kitchen was in charge of Mrs. Arthur Webb.

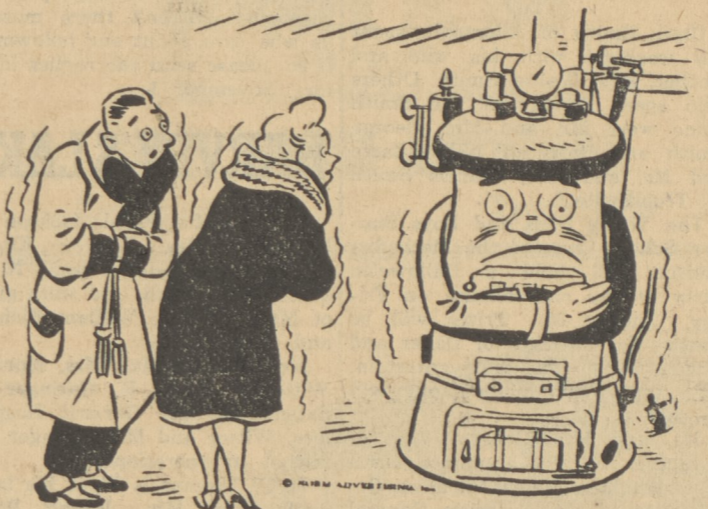

Kingston Township Grade School pupils will hold their annual Halloween party on Monday, October 31.
