News Of The Churches

Dallas Church Notes

Jessie Austin Brickel Sunday School Class met Thursday evening in the Church Social Rooms. Covered dish was served. Program and business followed. The meeting date was advanced from Friday to enable all members to attend the very important Bishop's Rally in Wilkes-Barre.

Annual Bishop's Rally of Wilkes-Barre District will be held in the Central Methodist Church, Wilkes-Barre tonight at 7:30 (Nov. 18). The program will begin with a congregational hymn sing. One of the features will be "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" to the tune, "Dixie" by the ministers of the District. Bishop Fred P. Corson, resident bishop of the Philadelphia Area, will be the speaker. There is considerable interest in this meeting not only because of the high quality of the program but by the added attraction of the recently renovated interior of the host church and the beauty of its newly equipped Kaiser Memorial Chapel. Those attending are urged to arrive early.

Young people of the local Methodist Youth Fellowship will visit the Children's Home in Binghamton on Saturday.

Cars will leave at eight o'clock and return at five. The young people will take their lunches and eat them on the grounds of the Home. Time will be provided for visits in several of the larger churches of Binghamton and in the city's stores.

The sermon in the Sunday morning worship service will be the third in a series of sermons on "Our Faith in God", which is the general theme of the November emphasis of the Advance for Christ and His Church". The Sacrament of Baptism will be administered.

On Sunday evening the two Youth Fellowships (ages 11-14, and 15-18) will meet at the regular hour—6:30.

Two identical Thanksgiving Services will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock and on Thursday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Special Thanksgiving music will be presented by the choirs. Sermon by the minister. The offering will be presented to the Fellowship of Suffering and Service Fund of the Methodist Church.

W.S.C.S. will present its first study book of the year, "Missions at the Grass Roots", at the home of Mrs. Edgar Brace on Monday at 2:00 p.m.

All pledges and contributions to Wyoming Conference Advance Fund for Pastors' Pensions and Sky Lake are due on December 5th. Approximately $2500 has been raised in the local church to date for this fund, but more money is needed to meet the quota.

Lutheran Church Notes

New members received on Sunday were John Cowell, Thelma Cowell, Nelson Shaver and Laura Whitesell.

A beautiful film depicting the Christmas Story was shown in the church Sunday evening.

The annual Thank You Offering Service sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary will be held Sunday evening at 8 p.m. A special program has been prepared. All members of the congregation are invited.

Thanksgiving service will be held at the church Thursday morning at 8:30 a.m.

On December 6, the Congregational meeting will be held. Dinner will be served.
