

Jersey Hunters
Are Fined $1,200

Four New Jersey residents were apprehended in an effort to advance the antlerless deer season by one week. Salvatore Nicolette, Nutley, Nicolas Anthony Nicolette, Belvedere, Anthony Joseph Foti, Passaic, and James Fusaro, Belvedere, had two doe deer in the trunk of their car which they had shot in Pennsylvania on Saturday. Enroute to their homes they found another doe deer killed on the highway which they loaded into the back seat of their sedan. They were apprehended at a road block on Route 611 and paid fines in the amount of $300.00 each or a total of $1,200.

The Forty Fort office of the Pennsylvania Game Commission reports that they are deluged with questions concerning the antlerless season which will open for one day tomorrow. Hunters are advised that antlerless deer of either sex are legal prey from 7 a.m. until 5 p.m. Any person who has killed legal antlered deer during the open season from November 28th to December 9th, is not permitted to kill an antlerless deer on Saturday nor is any person who has participated with others in the killing of six deer during the buck season permitted to hunt for antlerless deer. Otherwise, the usual regulations as to the type of gun, bullets, rosters, etc., that generally apply to the hunting of big game will be in effect tomorrow.
