Mrs. Lear M. Shoemaker Is Buried Saturday

The funeral of Mrs. Lear Malvina Shoemaker, 87, was held Saturday from Woolbert's Funeral home in Shavertown. Mrs. Shoemaker, the former Lear Whispell, had been ill for a number of months prior to her death. She was the widow of Henry Shoemaker, who passed away 16 years ago.

Deceased was born in Woodstock, N. Y. and moved to Kunkle 76 years ago. One of Kunkle's oldest residents, she attended Kunkle Methodist Church.

She is survived by three children: Mrs. James Traver, at home; William, Trucksville and Joseph, Alderson.

Services were in charge of Rev. Ruth Underwood. Interment was in Fern Knoll Cemetery. Bearers were Corey Miers, George Landon, Clinton Sayre, Lawrence Hilbert, Gideon Miller and Charles Martin.

Flower carriers were Arline Updyke, Ella Brace, Naomi Ashburner, Arline Kunkle and Myrtle Hess.

PTA School Of Instruction Attracts Many

Parents From Three Counties Attend Sessions In Dallas

Back Mountain Area P T A Council was host to seventy-five members of Parent-Teacher groups of Luzerne, Wyoming and Susquehanna Counties at a school of instruction held November 30 at the Dallas Borough High School. The meeting, from 9:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m., was interrupted by luncheon served by the Domestic Science Department of Dallas B. H. S.

The Area Council of the Back Mountain is the first in Luzerne County. Many such councils are operating elsewhere, and the inauguration of this co-operative movement here is a credit to local groups.

The School of Instruction was honored by the presence of Mrs. E. H. Smith, State Council adviser, who presented many new ideas and emphasized that the meeting was to acquaint delegates with planning, operation and possibilities of P. T. A. work and to inform the group of the help the State and National organization can give local units.

C. J. Ollendike, State Chairman of Juvenile Protection spoke on objectionable movies and comics. He presented a list of permissible comics approved by Pennsylvania Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Mrs. George Basak, president of Scranton City Council, made interesting comments on Parent Education. Mrs. A. Hughes, head of the Northeast District, conducted a model P. T. A. meeting and reviewed Parliamentary procedure. Mrs. W. E. McQuilkin, president of Dallas Borough P. T. A. presided. Tea was served at the close of the meeting by the Borough P. T. A.

Among local persons attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles James; Mesdames, Alfred Root, Lloyd Kear, Ralph Fitch, Durelle Scott, Raymond Heddon, Anthony Broody, H. W. Peterson, O. L. Harvey, Gerald Dettmore, H. R. Weaver, William Baker, Sr., Leonard Derby, Warren Reed, David Robertson, Robert Van Horn, Michael Kevolic, Clarence Laidler, Edward F. Biezup and W. E. McQuilkin.

Schools represented included: Church Street, Kingston, Lake Township, Hoyt School, Clinton, Lehman, Jackson, Kingston and Dallas Townships, Daleville, Wilkes-Barre, St. Claire, Forty-Fort, Trucksville, Centermoreland, Nicholson, Shavertown and Tunkhannock.

Hospital Patients

Mrs. George Dawkins, Main road, Shavertown is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital where she was admitted last week after suffering a fractured leg in a fall at her home. She was taken to the hospital in Howard Woolbert's ambulance.

A short time later, her husband, who has been ill for some time was taken to a nursing home in Trucksville, where he will be cared for until his wife recovers.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Bennet entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Warner of Vestal, N.Y. Mrs. Warner was the former Ruth Chapman, daughter of a former Trucksville minister.
