

Cites Rules Of Human Conduct

Wilkes Professor Addresses Parents

Fundamentals of human relationships were explained by Professor John A. Hall, head of the Guidance Center of Wilkes College, in an excellent talk before Shavertown P.T.A. last week.

Professor Hall emphasized the need for friendliness in every community before there can be universal friendliness. Jesus Christ, he said, was the greatest psychologist that ever lived, and urged all to follow his teachings.

He made the statement that the terrific pressure under which this generation lives will cause one out of every twenty-five persons to spend some time in a mental institution.

His rules for a more tranquil life were simple: never try to manage anyone but yourself and adjust yourself to those with whom you can't agree. Control emotions in order to get along with others; a show of temper is a symptom of mental instability. He stressed relaxation and control of emotional impulses. A reprimand gently given will bring satisfying results. If you expect friendliness in others, you must be friendly yourself.

The height of wisdom, Prof. Hall said, is to be able to laugh at one's self. Avoid appearing clever, good will and a gentle approach, he said, are two prime requisites of friendly relations.

Miss Dolores Beline Is Bride of Donald Gabel

Miss Dolores A. Beline, daughter of William Beline and the late Frieda Heck Beline of Trucksville, became the bride of Donald M. Gabel, son of Carl A. Gabel and the late Theresa Roberts Gabel of Trucksville, on November 5 at 9 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church, Luzerne.

Rev. Francis H. Kraemer performed the double ring ceremony and read the nuptial mass. Wedding music was played by Helen Pointek.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin and chantilly lace. The fitted bodice, lace over satin, featured a yoke of satin with a soft rolled collar and long lace over satin sleeves tapering to points at the wrists. The lace extending into the skirt was edged with scallops and lace appliques. The gown, which had tiny buttons down the back, featured a full skirt which fell into a long, cathedral train. Her veil of imported silk illusion, which was cathedral length, was arranged on a Chantilly lace coronet with California orange blossoms. She carried a white prayerbook centered with two orchids.

Miss Marie Beline, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Betty Gabel, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Thomas Beline, sister of the bridegroom and sister-in-law of the bride, were bridesmaids. Thomas M. Beline, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Andrew Stash and Richard Youngblood.

Maid of honor wore a gown of rose slipper satin designed with square neckline, triple tiered off-shoulder effect, fitted bodice and a wide graceful skirt, featuring gauntlets and carried a semi-Colonial bouquet of pink roses and carnations. Her headdress was of matching flowers.

The bridesmaids were attired in aqua slipper satin gowns styled identically to that of the maid of honor. They wore matching gauntlets and carried semi-Colonial bouquets of yellow roses. Their headdresses were of yellow roses.

Breakfast was served at the home of the bride, followed by a reception for 200 guests at the Dresden and the couple left for Niagara Falls and Canada.

Mrs. Gabel is a graduate of Lehman High School and was an office employee of Central Color Press, Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Gabel is a veteran of four years in the armed forces. He is employed by the Sordoni Construction Company at Lebanon.

The couple reside at 302½ North Fifth Street, Lebanon.

Beaumont Couple Celebrates Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crispell were pleasantly surprised Saturday, November 26 when a number of friends and relatives dropped in to help them celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The couple resides at Beaumont next door to the Crispell home—stead farm now operated by John Crispell, brother of Edward. Mr. Crispell, who has spent most of his life back of the Mountain, likes nothing better than to help his brother, Edward with the crops.

Mrs. Crispell keeps busy from morning until night, in summer with her vegetable and flower garden as side lines and in winter with her houseplants. Rows and rows of canned vegetables are evi-

Heights Residents Are Short of Water

Residents of upper Huntville Road Park and Elizabeth streets appeared before Dallas Borough Council Monday night to protest the scarcity of water in their neighborhood.

Spokesmen said they have experienced a water shortage over the past two years and that it has now become acute at certain periods of the day, especially mornings, early evenings, and wash days. The shortage, they said, was due to small lines, leaks in the lines, and the addition of many new homes to the lines.

MacPhearson Opens First Commercial Parking Lot For Dallas Shoppers

For the convenience of motorists who find it difficult to find a place to park in Dallas while they are doing their shopping, Earl "Mac" MacPhearson has opened the first commercial parking lot in Dallas.

Mac will also watch the baby for his patrons or render any other services or assistance while they use his parking lot.

Ground for the lot was donated to Mac by Carl, Lillian, and Frank Kuehn not to mention Grandma Kuehn, who also thought it was a grand idea. Ben Rood hauled the ashes free of charge to level off the parking lot.

For many years Mr. MacPhearson was employed by Gregory's Store but after Charlie closed his clothing department Mac was out of work. It isn't easy to find a job after you have passed seventy, so Mac and his friends decided to create a job.

We hope in the next few days and throughout the Christmas season there will be such a rush of patrons to his parking lot, that even a younger man wouldn't be able to handle the business.

A commercial parking lot in Dallas wouldn't ordinarily be considered a very profitable business, but at Christmas time it ought to be a dandy—especially in a community as neighborly as the Back Mountain Region.

KUEHN'S STATEMENT
The writer feels obligated to reply to an item published in the

William Hausch Dies Suddenly

Wilkes-Barre Sunday Independent, November 20, 1949.

This parking lot, as stated, is owned by the Kuehn's but has never been operated, nor is it now being operated, by the Kuehn's, on a commercial basis for car parking or anything else.

The truth of the matter is; the Kuehn family and Kuehn's Drug Store have granted the use of the lot, free of charge to Earl MacPhearson, well known and hard working resident of Dallas, to be used as a parking lot. The monetary income will be his only source of income.

Mr. MacPhearson, 75 years of age, conducted the shoe and clothing departments for Charles Gregory for many years. When Mr. Gregory discontinued these departments, MacPhearson was without work.

The Kuehn family had no other thought in mind than to help an old and admired neighbor. In furthering this objective, Ben Rood, son of I. A. Rood, Harvey's Lake, and operator of the Harvey's Lake—Dallas Bus, donated his truck, personal effort and time to fill the lot with ashes.

Under an arrangement with Mr. MacPhearson all patrons of Kuehn's Drug Store are invited to use the parking lot without charge. Others who wish the convenience of the lot will be charged a nominal fee, the receipts going entirely to Mr. MacPhearson.

Many Attend Funeral Wednesday Afternoon

Largely attended funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for William Hausch 66, long-time member of Lake Township School Board who died suddenly Sunday night of a heart attack while visiting with his daughters, Mrs. Raymond Garinger and Mrs. James Worth.

The services were conducted from the Garinger home at Harvey's Lake with Rev. Arthur Hontz and Rev. William Schell officiating, assisted by Rev. Ruth Underwood and Rev. Byron D. Jones.

Born in Wilkes-Barre Mr. Hausch had been a resident of Lake Township since childhood. He was a carpenter by trade and one of the few Democrats in Lake Township, an affiliation from which he derived a great deal of fun and pleasure at the expense of his friends.

He served twelve years on the School Board and was for a number of years its secretary.

Possessed of a rugged, hearty disposition, he was a good friend and neighbor and was especially loved by children in whom he took great interest. He was a member of Pentecostal Church.

Since the death of his wife two years ago, he had lived alone in his home on the Lake-Loyalville road. On Sunday evening he made several calls on neighbors, and stopped in to visit his daughter, Mrs. Ray Garinger. Soon after his arrival he was stricken with a heart attack. Dr. Lester Saidman of Noxen was called and administered to him. He was apparently recovering when the doctor left him, intending to call next day. Shortly he suffered another attack and died instantly. His death came two days to the day from the date of his wife's funeral.

He leaves these children: Mrs. Harold Kline, Kingston; Mrs. James Worth, Lyman Hausch and Mrs. Garinger, all of Harvey's Lake.

Pallbearers were: Rodell Kocher, Carl Auvil, Milo Oney, Fred Swanson, Benjamin Rood and Eldridge Shaver.

Flower carriers were: Thomas Gerrity, Richard Williams, Richard Searfoss, George Oney, Eugene Kocher, Dean Kocher and Norman Kocher.

Interment was in the family plot at Kocher Cemetery.

Arrangements were in charge of Paul Nulton.
