importance to the total agricultural program in the State, the Commission asserts.

All competitive farm products exhibits may total close to or exceed 10,000. They will include, in addition to livestock and poultry, the cream of Pennsylvania crops such as corn, small grains, apples, vegetables, honey, milk, eggs, tobacco, maple products, potatoes, edible nuts, wool and home economics displays. Many exhibits won prizes at 1949 county and community fairs and are sent to the Farm Show in an effort to win state-wide awards. Due to increased interest, the Commission is offering 9,271 different cash awards totaling a record $53,719 in premiums.

The 1950 schedule of evening entertainment features in the Farm Show Coliseum include:

Monday, demonstration of skills in horsemanship and dog training by the Pennsylvania State Police mounted unit; Tuesday, 5th annual Rural Talent Festival with 600 participants; Wednesday, State Championship Horse Pulling Contest; Thursday, livestock parade, State Championship Horseshoe Pitching and Log Sawing Contests.

The Pennsylvania Society of Farm Women and the State Vegetable Growers Association on Monday morning start the long list of farm organizations holding annual meetings at the Farm Show. Christmas tree growers start that afternoon. On Tuesday the following organizations open sessions running from half a day to two days:

COMING OR GOING...

SMARTER THAN EVER...

AGAIN THIS YEAR THE BIG VALUE IS DODGE!

You could pay a thousand dollars more and still not get all the new beauty... extra room... famous ruggedness of this great new Dodge HERE'S BIGGER VALUE in smart new styling... in ease of handling... in comfort... in sound engineering. And in actual dollars and cents, too, because the big new Dodge costs just a few dollars more than the lowest-priced cars.

Despite its smart, low, graceful lines OUTSIDE, Dodge is higher, wider, longer on the INSIDE to give you the roominess that spells solid comfort... that means extra room for your head, your legs. Less overhang front and rear makes parking and garaging simpler, easier.

See this great new Dodge. Sample the flashing performance of the powerful high-compression "Get-away" Engine... the smoothness of Dodge Fluid Drive. Come in today.

NEW BIGGER VALUE
DODGE

Just a few dollars more than the lowest-priced cars!

NEW VALUE! You'll thrill to the smoothness of Dodge Fluid Drive. Gyro-Matic, to free you from shifting, optional on Coronet models at moderate extra cost.
