Tibus Family Attends Midget Wedding

North Braddock; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Bunt, Cleveland; Bessy and Alice Pick, fifty-three year old twins from Germany; Mr. Tibus.

All of the above except the Tibuses are midgets, most of whom have got together in the show business. Practically all appeared at the New York World Fair. Guests in the back row of the picture are standing on a bench twenty inches high.

While Mr. Kotalik is from Ashley, his bride comes from Nashville, Tennessee. Mr. Kozicki, also an Ashley resident, brought his wife from Italy.

The Bunts have two children, a boy fourteen and a girl eleven. Neither is a midget. The bride (who made her own gown, by the way) is one of nine children—all of the others being over six feet tall.
