Dallas Methodist Church

Several Church School officers and teachers heard Dr. James D. Smart, Editor-in-Chief of the new curriculum of Church School texts of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, in a challenging address on "The Church School and The Home" Monday evening at St. Stephen's Parish Hall.

Dr. Smart said the parent has no right to shift responsibility of child training in religion to the church or Church School. By virtue of his parenthood, the parent is primarily responsible for his child's religious training. The church school is to assist the parent in this high task. Dr. Smart indicated that while external control may be necessary, it is highly desirable to develop within the child those ideals and that respect which will constitute an inner discipline. Attending were Mrs. David Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. LeGrand, Mrs. Raymond Kuhnert, Rev. F. W. Reinfort.

Boy Scout and Race Relation's Sunday will be observed Sunday morning in the Sanctuary Service at eleven. Scouts, Scout Committee and Scout Leaders will attend. Seats will be reserved in the Sanctuary for those honored guests. A special offering will be received for Bennett College, Negro co-educational college, sponsored by the Methodist Church. The minister will speak on "Something More Important Than Fishing". The choir will sing, "Open Our Eyes" by MacFarlane. Organ music will include the following numbers by Dubois, the noted French organist and composer: "March"; "Offertoire", and "Allegro Maestoso".

A combined worship service for all young people will be held at 6:30. Thomas Peirce is worship leader. Following the service, boys and girls 10-14 will adjourn for the Membership Training Class conducted by the minister.

On Monday evening at eight our church will be host to members of churches of the Back Mountain in a Missionary Rally. The principal speaker will be Bishop Willis Jefferson King, Ph.D., D.D., noted Methodist educator and churchman. Bishop King has been active in the training of students for the ministry, having been professor of Old Testament and Christian Sociology and also having served as president of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Georgia. At present Bishop King is administrator of our work in Liberia, with headquarters in the capital city of Monrovia. All friends of the church are invited.

A covered dish supper and Workers' Conference will be held at the church social rooms on Tuesday evening at six-thirty. All officers and teachers of the Church School are invited. Those attending are to bring their own table service, rolls, and a covered dish. The program will include reports on the recent lectures sponsored by the Council of Churches and a general discussion of opportunities for improving our own Church School.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Garinger, Lake street, will be hosts to the Cottage Prayer Meeting on Wednesday night at 7:30. Since we begin the traditional Mid-Week Services in our Church next week this will be the concluding service in the present series. "Our Faith in Love" will be the theme for discussion.

All boys and girls of scouting age are invited to attend the Scout Meetings held on Wednesday afternoon for girls and on Thursday evening for boys.

The minister has resumed the radio broadcast of "Bible Cameos" on Station WILK on Thursday mornings at 8:05-8:15.

Choir rehearsals will be held on Thursday as follows: Juniors, 4:00; Young People, 7:00; Seniors, 7:45.

Pennsylvania Congressman Plays New Role in Nation's Capital

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Congressman Daniel Flood, and his bride, Catherine, enact a melodramatic scene with Ted Mack, master-of-ceremonies, at a rehearsal of the unique Original Amateur Hour V.I.P. show. The occasion is a rally in Constitution Hall that will spark the annual drive for funds of the American Heart Association, now seeking a remedy against the nation's lead-

CHILDHOOD'S Greatest Enemy

It's no fun lying in bed while all your friends play outside. Fortunately, this youngster doesn't realize just how serious her trouble is. She has rheumatic fever.

True, there's an excellent chance she'll get well. But rheumatic fever often causes rheumatic heart disease, the leading fatal disease between the ages of 5 and 19.

Scientists are working tirelessly to find the cause of rheumatic fever. Until they do, prevention and cure are delayed. Our doctors need your support. Why not give it TODAY.
