Married Fifty Years

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES HILBERT
February 28, 1950

Our memory lane was started just fifty years ago, 'twas then our step was frisky, but now a little slow; our hair was dark and heavy, our eyes saw far and near, our work seemed just a pleasant game, no job gave us a fear. The city life was not for us, we thought it did us harm, so to the Beaumont village came, and bo't ourselves a farm. Some 5 and 30 years we toiled, and followed up the plow, with hatching chicks, watch brooding pigs and hunt the freshened cow whose calf was hidden in the swamp, or by a clump of trees. These were called pleasures, then, to us, we worked them out with ease. No children blessed our humble home, it seemed it was God's will; but two fine boys grew up with us, and helped our pleasures fill. At times the day seemed rugged, we tho't we hit a stone, but morning brought the sunshine, for we had not fought alone; the hand of The Almighty, was always at our side, and taught us honest, truth and right, just like a Mother guide. Then age slipped in, we know not how, we found our work a worry, so moved down in the little town, to watch men and children hurry. The radio, the baseball games, the church and children play, all bring us happiness and joy, and shorten up our day. February the twenty-eighth, we'll greet our friends and kin, and if you're in the Beaumont town, just kindly drop right in. We'll show that it pays in joy, to love and live and plan, help needy folk, share tears and joys, and be a friend to man.
