Happy Birthday To Fred Renard

Benton Dinner Marks The Day

Fred H. Renard celebrated his seventy-ninth birthday last night at the Moses VanCampen Hotel in Benton, in company with his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Ludt, and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hightower.

Mr. Renard is seeing one of his life-long ambitions fulfilled. When the Prince of Peace Parish was first contemplated for this area, it was Mr. Renard who donated two lots from his own property to the Diocese. That was back in the twenties, and the church project lay quiescent for many years. But now the walls have risen, and the church will soon be ready for services, practically in Mr. Renard's front yard.

Mr. Renard, the possessor of a remarkable tenor voice until he strained it by singing after a severe cold, has been widely known throughout Wyoming Valley. He sang in St. Stephens Choir, Wilkes-Barre, at St. Peter's in Plymouth, and organized the Grace Church choir in Kingston. He took the part of the Christ in the Oberammergau Passion Play given at St. Stephen's.

A craftsman as well as a singer, Mr. Renard is responsible for some of the interior work at Irem Temple and St. Stephen's.

One of the guests at the birthday celebration, Ben Hightower, has recently celebrated his own eighty-fifth birthday.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Renard preferred a small birthday gathering to the large party contemplated by their many friends, but the friends were present in spirit, as evidenced by the showers of birthday cards and greetings.

Dallas Brownies Plan Dutch Dance

The Brownies themselves are planning a Dutch folk-dance, to be given in costume. Mrs. C. W. Hill is troop leader, Mrs. A. J. Pruitt, assistant leader.

Library Again Tops Circulation

February and March Banner Months

Librarian's report, presented by Miss Miriam Lathrop at the Friday evening meeting of the Executive Board, shows that circulation is still rising at the Back Mountain Memorial Library.

February, 1950, shows withdrawal of 2564 books as against 1929 for last year, circulation for March, 1950 as 3030, a distinct gain over last March's 2020. Miss Lathrop attributes the upswing in borrowing books to the attendance of children in the library, part of the Borough program for extra-curricular activity.

Present at the Executive session were: Miss Frances Dorrance, president; Miss Miriam Lathrop; Mrs. Fred Howell, secretary; H. W. Peterson, treasurer; Mrs. T. M. B. Hicks, Book-Club; Howard Risley, Charles Lee, Mrs. Lewis LeGrand, Mrs. Joseph Schmerer, Mrs. H. W. Smith.

The Eight Singing Grandmothers, called upon extemporaneously obliged with several selections. Members of the chorus: Mrs. Arline Updyke, Vergie Elston, Arline Kunkle, Myrtle Hess, Florence Klemec, Agnes Elston, Emma Miller, Ella Brace.

Four pairs of twins, Arlene Updyke and Arlene Kunkle; Helen Landon and Helen Boston; Dorothy Dodson and Dorothy Henney; Florence Hoyt and Florence Klemec, sang from the song-sheet, two by two, with encores for the Helens, then wound up with a group selection.
