DALLAS METHODIST CHURCH
Following the very successful Sunday School picnic sponsored last year by the Sunday Schools of the Back Mountain, a committee will meet in our Church tonight at 7:30 to discuss prospects for another picnic.

This Sunday is Pentecost Sunday. In a true sense this is the birthday of the Christian Church. What happened on that first Pentecost? Is there a need for a modern Pentecost? What would happen to us and our world if the Holy Spirit fell on us as it did on the first Christians? The minister will speak on the theme, "Lord, Do It Again!" in the Morning Worship Service at 11.

Church School will meet at 10. We have classes in Christian instruction for all ages from three years up. Children are closely graded with separate classes for each age level. Youths are also closely graded in the twelve to fifteen year level and group graded above this age. Adults meet in four different classes. Anyone not attending a church or church school is invited to all services.

Methodist Youth Fellowship will hold a combined picnic supper and meeting on Sunday evening at 6. Each person is to bring his own lunch. Beverage and dessert will be furnished. Following the supper Mr. John H. Roberts will be the guest speaker at the worship service. Thomas Peirce is the worship leader. This will be the closing meeting for the current season. However, special projects are planned for the summer.

The following young people attended the Sub-District Rally and Picnic at Trucksville Methodist Church on Monday evening: Mildred Kingston, Jacquelyn Kingston, Sandra Smith, Charlyn Reinfort, David Kunkle, Robert Stair, and Thomas Peirce. They were accompanied by the minister.

Church Family Night will be observed Wednesday night with a covered dish supper and program. Featured will be the motion picture, "Pennsylvania" depicting places of scenic and historic interest in the keystone state. A short program will also be presented by our young people under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Turn Reynolds. Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish (other than meat, potatoes, or dessert), their own table service, and rolls. The public is invited. Bring the children.

There will be a Sub-District Church School Superintendent's meeting in Shavertown Methodist Church on Wednesday at 8 p.m. Superintendents of the children's, youth and adult divisions and the general superintendent are urged to attend.

Girl Scouts meet at the Church on Wednesday afternoon at 4. Boy Scouts meet on Thursday at 7. The Junior Choir will not meet this week. The Youth Choir will hold its rehearsal at 6:30, and the Senior Choir at 7:45.

Bible Moments will be broadcast on Thursday morning at 8:05 over station WILK.

April news letter will be available after Church this Sunday. All May reports are now due for the May issue.

Annual Baccalaureate Service for the combined graduating classes will be held in our church on Sunday, June 4th at 4. The Rev. William Williams, rector of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, will preach the sermon. The pastoral prayer will be offered by the Rev. Alverta Sechler, minister of Dallas Free Methodist Church. The minister will be in charge of the service, and special music will be presented by the choirs under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Turn Reynolds.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH

St. Paul's Lutheran Church lists services for Sunday, May 28 (Pentecost):

11:00 A.M.—The Service. Today is known throughout the Christian day and it commemorates God's gift of the Holy Ghost to the world. It is in keeping with this that we celebrate the rite of Confirmation. The pastor of St. Paul's Church, Frederick W. Mook, Jr., announces that the following young people will be confirmed:

Beatrice E. Adler, Peggy Ann

Maza, Marie D. Adler, David Clayton Robertson, Beverly L. Cowell, Yvonne Marion Schlitter, Marshall Lynn Downes, Jr., Elizabeth Ann Siperko, Ralph Samuel Ell, Regina Siperko, Frederick W. Malkemes, Jr., Kenneth Gordon Thomas, Leon Weiss, Jr.

The Pastor's sermon will be addressed primarily to the Catechetical Class and is entitled "Your Christianity."

7:00 p.m.—Luther League. Preparations are now under way for the Daily Vacation Bible School that will be held at the Church beginning June 12, and lasting until June 23. There is still time to have your children registered for this school.

There will be a Strawberry Festival on June 16 on the Church grounds sponsored by the Luther League. In addition there will be a one-act play produced by the members of the Luther League.

ALDERSON-NOXEN CHARGE

ian Church Hall in Sweet Valley on Memorial Day, May 30. Serving will begin at 11:30 a.m.

Following the service in the Ruggles Church on Sunday, Mrs. Beula Bronson was elected trustee to fill the unexpired term of the late Herbert Bronson. Mrs. Robert Traver and Charles Williams whose terms of office expired were reelected. At the reorganization meeting of the trustees held Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Bronson was elected president, Mrs. Clarence Oberst, vice-president, Mrs. Robert Traver, Secretary and Mrs. Charles Williams, treasurer.
